'OMICRON SUB-VARIANT BA.2.12 BEHIND DELHI COVID SURGE'

The Omicron sublineage has been detected in a majority of the samples sequenced from Delhi in April, sources said

MUTANT BEHIND U.S. SPIKE IN DELHI SAMPLES

According to Indian SARS-CoV-2 Genomics Consortium (INSACOG) sources, Omicron variant derivative BA.2.12.1 has also been found in a few samples in Delhi. This sub-variant is said to be contributing to the recent rise in cases in the US. BA.2.12 (52% samples) and BA.2.10 (11%) are showing high transmission rates, official sources said | P9

ANOTHER RARE MUTANT DETECTED IN HARYANA

- Official said the same sub-variants have been found in samples sequenced in neighbouring districts in UP and Haryana, too
- After visiting the Indian Institute of Technology, Madras (IIT-M) Health Secretary J Radhakrishnan said 12 people at the campus have tested Covid-19 positive.

PUII exams give murder accused minor a miss

SHILPA P @ Bengaluru

A 17-year-old juvenile, accused of murdering his mother, and who was not allowed to write his second-year PU exam, beginning Friday, was on Thursday told that he could write the papers. This came about after officials intervened, following a story published online by TNIE on Thursday.

EXPRESS IMPACT

DGP Praveen Sood, Education department principal secretary S Selvakumar and PU Board Director R Ramachandran assured the boy that they would help him write the theory papers, though he had missed his practical exams.

Ironically, by the time the officials got his college to allow him to attend exams, the teenager – depressed and disappointed – had returned to his native Ibrahimpura of Shahpur taluk in Yadgir district on Wednesday night. The boy is a resident of Tavarekere in Bengaluru. By the time he could be contacted over phone via his poor illiterate relatives, and conveyed that he could write the theory exam, it was Thursday evening, and he was confused whether he should write only the theory exam. When TNIE contacted him, he sobbed helplessly about missing exams this year. Vijay (name changed) said, "On February 7, my mother was allegedly killed by my stepfather, her first husband. But I was accused in the case and produced before the Juvenile Justice Board in Bengaluru and was sent to the Observation Home. My father was also murdered five years ago. So my guardians were expected to give a formal letter to the JJB to get me bail for the practical exams on March 2, 3 and 4. But my guardians are illiterate, they failed to complete formalities." P5

CBI files first chargesheet in NSE scam

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

THE Central Bureau of Investigation on Thursday filed its first chargesheet against former NSE MD & CEO Chitra Ramakrishna and ex-group operating officer Anand Subramanian in connection with the co-location scam case. Ramkrishna and Subramanian are currently in judicial custody. Sources said the CBI has grilled the duo multiple times along with experts from related fields to ferret out technical information on the co-location scam. Subramanian's role has been ascertained, a source claimed.

Chitra Ramakrishna

In the co-location facility offered by NSE, brokers could place their servers within the exchange premises for faster access to the markets. It is alleged that some brokers in connivance with insiders abused the algorithm and the co-location facility to make windfall profits.

PK moots non-Gandhi as Congress president

SHAHID FARIDI @ New Delhi

ELECTION strategist Prashant Kishor has asked the Congress leadership to elect a non-Gandhi as party president while leaving the three important posts of UPA Chairman, parliamentary board chief and general secretary coordination for Sonia Gandhi, Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi Vadra, respectively.

In his presentation to the Congress leadership, Kishor suggested forming of a shadow Cabinet with 20-25 experienced and new politicians and a brain trust of 10-12 SMEs and global authorities "to effectively represent the voice of the people both in Parliament and outside". This, he said, would go a long way in countering "elected autocracy" with "collective credibility".

The strategist said the "traditional media is heavily biased towards the ruling party" and the "current dispensation's vast network combines the resources of government and party to maintain news stranglehold". He also said that "timing and choice of propagation for INC is lopsided and not driven by data or science." He suggested creating "a network of ideologically inclined digital supporters divided into 543 digital zones, each with an ecosystem of approximately five lakh digitally connected people".

Under the title of "winning arithmetic," he said to win the general elections 45% of votes cast or 30 crore votes are needed. He focused on eight key groups of population to win these votes from "core supporters": women, farmers, youth, SC, ST, landless labourers, middle class and urban poor. The party, he suggested, should use the theme of "Gandhi, Truth, Bharosa versus Godse, Jhooth, Jhansa". To take on Prime Minister Narendra Modi, he said the Congress could expose "the true character and failures of Modi" and use slogans like "hanikarak Modi" and "Modi jaane wale hain".

Kishor said the party should not give ticket or organisational posts to those facing charges of heinous crimes, and strictly implement the principle of one-man-one-post. Critiquing the "jaded and aged leadership," he said it had "complete disconnect with the grassroots" and the party had "ceased working as a democratic organization" under them. He highlighted the sense of entitlement and sycophancy in the party and said only 23 out of 118 central leaders of the party are elected. CONTINUED ON: P9

Showing a mirror to the party

Kishor said between 1885 and 1998, the party had 61 presidents, whereas between 1998 and 2022, the party has had only two presidents (Sonia 21 years and Rahul 2 years). He pointed out that more than 65% district presidents and 90% block presidents have not ever had a meeting with the Congress president or even the AICC secretary

Last big campaign

The last mass public outreach campaign by the Congress was Rajiv Gandhi's Bharat Yatra in 1990. The party has not undertaken any "pan-India protest or agitational campaign that has lasted for more than 24 hours since 2014," he added

£1 BN DEALS DONE AS UK PM COMES CALLING

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA AND YESHI SELI @ Ahmedabad / New Delhi

UK Prime Minister Boris Johnson had business on mind when he began his two-day trip to India on Thursday. His first stop at Ahemdabad after a roadshow from the airport to his hotel saw him meeting industrialist Gautam Adani and inaugurating JCB India's sixth manufacturing plant in Vadodara.

He is expected to announce commercial deals worth £1 billion in new investments and export deals in areas from software engineering to health, creating almost 11,000 jobs in the UK. Both sides will confirm major new science and tech collaborations, including a digital health partnership and a joint investment fund for Indian deep-tech and AI start-ups.

Hoping to deepen security and defence ties as well, Johnson said: "India & UK share anxieties about autocracies around the world, we're both democracies and we want to stick together."

On Russia, Johnson agreed India and Russia have historically a very different a relationship. "We have to reflect on that reality, but clearly, I'll be talking about it to Narendra Modi."

During his visit to the Gandhi ashram in Sabarmati, Johnson was amazed to learn about the Salt Satyagraha — the protest launched by the Mahatma against the tax imposed on salt by the British Raj. "Did we impose a tax on salt?" he asked the accompaning British High Commissioner Alex Ellis. When he replied in the affirmative, Johnson said, "Quite astonishing."

Following the UK-India Enhanced Trade Partnership launched by both prime ministers last year, new measures will now be announced to make it easier to export UK-made medical devices to India, the British High Commission said in a statement.

Two Covid-19 sub-variants found in B'luru

CHETANA BELAGERE @ Bengaluru

TWO new SARS-CoV-2 mutants, BA.2.10 and BA.2.12, related to the Omicron sub-variant BA.2, have been found in Bengaluru, by INSACOG attached labs. However, sources, requesting anonymity, claimed that the data is too meagre to know the transmissibility features of these sublineages of BA.2.

"As per GISAID data, we have found BA.2.10 and BA.2.12, both sublineages of BA.2, in a few samples from Bengaluru. However, we need more samples and data to know more on this mutation. It is an alias of B.1.1.529.2.10, lineage from pango designation issue #496," explained a scientist attached to the lab, seeking anonymity.

Bengaluru Urban has, in the past seven days, reported 300 cases, and the district has 1,428 active cases, according to data shared by the health department on Thursday. Special Commissioner BBMP (Health) Dr K V Thrilok Chandra, after a recent Covid review meeting, said he has no knowledge of any new mutation but has taken measures to ramp up surveillance in the city, to ensure they don't miss any new variant. P3

K'TAKA TOUCHES 100 CASES

Old structure below mosque sparks debate

VINCENT D'SOUZA @ Mangaluru

DAKSHINA Kannada district administration on Thursday stopped the renovation of a centuries-old mosque in Malali near Ganjimutt on the outskirts of Mangaluru city after an old structure that had remained hidden for long emerged, which Hindutva outfits claimed it to be a temple.

A pile of debris in front of the mosque during renovation EXPRESS

Deputy Commissioner KV Rajendra said that after the front portion of the mosque was pulled down as part of the renovation, an old structure — which some said resembled a place of worship of "some other religion" — was discovered behind it. Soon, pictures of the rear structure went viral with people indulging in a debate over it on social media over what that hidden structure was.

The DC then rushed Mangaluru tahsildar Purandara to the spot, and the latter convinced the mosque management to stop the renovation works till the confusion was cleared, and security was beefed up at the mosque.

Later in the day, the DC in a statement said: "District administration is looking into the old land records and entries regarding the ownership details. We will get reports from both, the Endowment Department and the Waqf Board. We will check the veracity of the claims and take an appropriate decision very soon."

Until then, the DC said, he has instructed the stakeholders to maintain a status quo, while appealing to the public to maintain peace and not jump to conclusions. CONTINUED ON: P5

KEJRIWAL PROMISES CLEAN GOVERNMENT

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

AFTER Delhi and Punjab, the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) has cast its eye on Karnataka, ahead of the 2023 assembly polls, with Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal appealing to the people to vote for the party promising zero-corruption governance.

Speaking at the farmers' rally organised by the Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha (KRRS) faction headed by Kodihalli Chandrashekar at National College Grounds here on Thursday, Kejriwal trained his guns on the BJP, terming it a "rioters' party".

"The entire country knows which party is behind the riots happening across the country. If there is any party for 'goondas', it is BJP," he stated. He alleged that the BJP leadership is supporting rapists and killers of farmers, pointing to the Lakhimpur Kheri incident where four farmers were mowed down by Union minister Ajay Mishra Teni's son Ashish Mishra.

5 hijab petitioners may not write PU II exams

CFI leader says girls will attempt to write exams with head covered

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Udupi

FIVE II PU students who had challenged the State government against the ban on wearing hijab inside classrooms have not collected their hall tickets to appear for II PU examination commencing today. Sources said that after their request to the education minister to allow them to attend the examination with hijab was not entertained, the petitioners- Almas A H and Hazra Shifa of science stream and Aliya Assadi, Aliya Banu and Resham of commerce stream from Women's government PU College, have decided to not appear for the examination.

Along with the petitioners, another student-Bibi Ayesha of the science stream who had also demanded the college principal to allow her to wear hijab inside classrooms has not taken her hall ticket. However, a CFI leader Sadik said the girls will try to write exams in hijab. "They will collect their hall tickets tomorrow morning and enter the class with hijab. They will write the exam if they are allowed or else come back," he said.

Staff members prepare for the second PU exams at Sheshadripuram college in Bengaluru on Thursday | VINOD KUMAR.T

The principal Rudre Gowda said that he is ready to hand over hall tickets to the students even on the last examination day. "We had sent messages individually to the student to collect the hall tickets. But 18 students including six Muslims have not taken the hall tickets as on Thursday. The science batch students had not appeared for the practical examination also," he said. "There are a total of 75 Muslim girl students in the college and except for the six Muslim girls, all others have followed the dress code norm in classrooms," he said.

He added that the other 12 students who have not collected their hall tickets are from the North Karnataka region. "In fact, we paid their college fees (Rs 250) as they have not attended physical classes since the transition from online classes," he said.

BBMP digitises property tax zonal classification

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

TO clear confusion on filing property tax and ensure minimal errors, BBMP on Thursday announced that the self-assessment scheme has been digitised to six different zonal levels.

"Zonal classification from A-F zones have different rates. When one logs in to pay property tax, auto classification is done and there are no errors or penalties. The zones are defined based on occupancy, location and other categories," explained BBMP DC, Revenue, D K Babu.

He added that there have been instances of wrong classification, which has led to people paying penalties. Also, due to leakages in the system, many who undermined their properties were let off with low taxes. Now the entire system has been digitised and certified as per gazette notification approved by the government.

Property guidance value cut by 10 pc

Revenue Minister R Ashoka said the state government has decided to cut property guidance value by 10 per cent for another three months.

He said: "The rebate was earlier applicable from January 1, 2022, to March 31, 2022, but registrations were hit due to Covid-19. With 10 per cent discount, there was an increase in registrations which also helped the government in terms of revenue. We received requests from various quarters to extend this scheme, so we have decided to extend 10 per cent rebate on registration of all properties from April 25, 2022, to July 24, 2022."

The Karnataka government had earlier slashed property guidance values across the state by 10 per cent.

BDA adds last year's maintenance fee

BENGALURU: With Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) adding maintenance fee for last year for all its properties across the city with retrospective effect, allottees are upset over increased payment this year. Tinu Cherian Abraham, a BDA property owner at Kadugodi said, "My property tax has almost doubled this year. I paid Rs 6,500 last year and the amount this year shows Rs 11,400. Maintenance fee of Rs 2,400 for this year and a same amount for the previous year have been added to it." Abraham asked, "Why should we pay maintenance fee? We don't even have a tarred road." Another Kempegowda Layout allottee had an issue of arrears of maintenance fee to be paid though he had no arrears pending.

"We expect a good number of them to take a Metro ride just for the experience," the MD added.

Holidays cut to make up for learning loss

BENGALURU: With at least 40 per cent loss of physical classes, besides loss of learning for students due to pandemic over the past two academic years, the education department has come up with a new calendar for the coming academic year. The year will begin early and end late, with 26 extra days to compensate for learning loss. The first term of the academic year will be from May 16 to October 2; the second will be from October 17 to April 10. Summer holidays will be cut to 48 days, and Dasara to 14 days. Wherever Christmas holidays need to be declared, Dasara holidays will be cut. Among 330 days, there will be 60 days holidays, including Dasara, summer and government holidays. Co-curricular activities, exams, parent-teacher meetings, excursions and functions will take up 28 days, so classes will be conducted on 228 days. The number of classes will also be increased, and timing will be from 10am to 4.20pm.

Around 9k extra students enrol for PU II exams

SHILPA P @ Bengaluru

WITH the 70 per cent attendance rule relax like last year, as many as 8,982 extra students compared to the pre-pandemic period enrolled for this year's second PU exams, which starts on Friday.

However, already 14,830 students have missed practical exams in Science faculty alone, according to PU board sources.

This year as many as 6,84,255 students including 6,00,519 regular students, 61,808 repeaters, 21,928 private students and 2,212 physically challenged who are scheduled to write the exams across 5,241 centres. In 2021, as many as 6,84,089 students had enrolled for second PU exams, and in 2020, 6,75,273 students had enrolled for exams. More students have enrolled this year too like last year thinking the exam pattern would be easy like last year, PU board director, R Ramachandran said.

He added that if a student is absent for practical exam for one subject too that goes on absentees list. But those who have missed practical exam can appear for theory exams, Ramachandran clarified.

In case if exam papers are linked, the board has come up with an expensive method to make changes in the question paper immediately CCTV cameras are being installed at the offices of all deputy commissioners from where the examination papers will be dispatched. This entire proceeding will be recorded until the papers reach respective classrooms. As many as 2,152 special squads, 858 taluk squads and 64 district squads will be deputed.

Postcard push for inquiry against RERA

DONNA EVA @Bengaluru

HOME buyers across the state have started a postcard campaign, informing the Supreme Court on the ground realities of RERA implementation.

The campaign comes as the Supreme Court has ordered the state governments to respond to queries on the implementation of the RERA Act, 2016. The Karnataka Home Buyers Forum started the campaign to directly inform the Supreme Court on the implementation of RERA in the state. They also encouraged home buyers from different states to take part in the campaign. "We are sending two postcards, one to the Chief Justice of India and another to the CBI to open an inquiry into possible corruption in K-RERA. We feel it's necessary to give direct information to the Supreme Court on RERA's functioning, especially as our letters go unanswered," Dhananjay Padmanabhachar, president for the forum, told TNIE.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

22nd April: It seems that every day we're told that something else is bad for us. I've just seen an old story repeated that flying in airplanes is a health problem because travelling too high in the atmosphere exposes us to massive doses of cosmic radiation. It's not unlike the ancient myth of Icarus who came to grief by flying too near to the Sun. I guess the moral is - stick close to planet Earth.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
It is absolutely vital to see education not just in terms of formal schooling and qualifications. It's a process involving the acquisition of wisdom and a better understanding of the difference between right and wrong. This may sound profound, but then the current planetary line-up is extremely important.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
You know how essential it is to talk to loved ones. It's vital to keep the dialogue going. Don't for one moment imagine that other people are telepathic, otherwise they'll misunderstand your intentions, you'll blame them, and they'll walk away! Say what you mean!

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
If you wish to release a little pressure there seems no better way than a spot of shopping, even just of window shopping. It really does look like a time for treats and rewards all round, so don't stint. You've paid your dues and now it's time to cash in.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Partners and employers will be impressed at just how well you combine your legendary compassionate qualities with resolution and determination, which may come as something of a surprise. You've got some big ideas, but you don't have to follow them all through just yet.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Keep your thoughts and feelings to yourself if you wish. You may do best if you take another day or two to digest what's going on, probably at work. In the meantime, you must look anew at an old relationship, and figure out how you can make a loved one feel better.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Spare a thought for your physical well-being. Your social stars are most obviously strong today, but one planetary sub-plot is giving you the opportunity to do something about a minor, but niggling, complaint. A romantic opportunity will require extra attention, by the way.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Somebody you encounter over the next two or three days seems to be destined to become one of the most important people in your life during the next couple of months. This is surely enough to make you realise that you should not reject new contacts just because they don't meet your normal standards.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Your planetary patterns are mixed, some pushing you forward, others holding you back. Unless family matters are pressing, put them to one side and concentrate instead on the professional situation. And, if you are about to get under way with a major new ambition, success should come fast.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Business must go on. Recognising that moral and spiritual issues are very strong, you must still proceed with cash transactions and joint investments. In fact, if you have any plans for purchasing extra property, the stars are almost perfect.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
The romantic condition of the heavens is so pronounced that if you are single you'll be making long-term commitments and if you are already settled you'll be renewing your vows. Don't cramp your feelings, otherwise you'll miss out on this splendid period.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
You've got to take life one step at a time. It is necessary to complete all detailed and trivial chores, no matter how tedious. Indeed, the more thorough you are, the greater will be the respect and admiration which you are due to receive from far and wide.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Passion should be top of your list for the day, pleasure second. The strange thing, of course, is that for you there should be no contradiction between total self-indulgence and the highest spiritual activity: the one doesn't exist without the other.

No attendance, no salary: Min to health staff

Sudhakar takes dept staff to task, says such measures needed to bring in qualitative change, more discipline

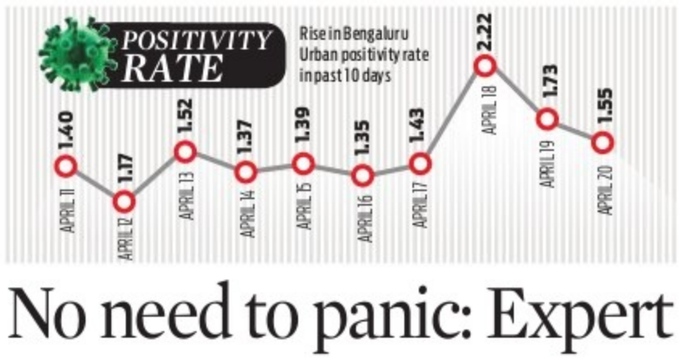
EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

AFTER repeated complaints of the absence of health officials, Health and Medical Education Minister Dr K Sudhakar has decided to implement biometric attendance system, and link salaries to attendance, to bring in "a qualitative change in the department and more discipline, accountability and efficiency" among the staff.

He told reporters after the department's review meeting that he had received several complaints from elected representatives and members of the public, that doctors and other staff were not available in hospitals and office during working hours. "The indiscipline of government officials will impact the delivery of public healthcare services. So I have given instructions to cut the salary of those who weren't present during working hours. All hospitals and other offices under the health department will be installed with a biometric attendance system (AEBS) which will record attendance based on the Aadhaar card of doctors, officers and staff," he said.

Biometric attendance had been stopped due to Covid-19, but it has again been made mandatory from the past two months.

It is the responsibility of all DDOs (salary drawing officer) to check all AEBS under their jurisdiction and submit a report on providing salaries to the DHO concerned. If anyone is found to have less than 80 per cent attendance, their payment will be withheld and action will be taken.



No need to panic: Expert

DR CHANDRA said they have decided to conduct sewage surveillance in all 198 wards of the city. According to him, a high number of Covid-19 cases is coming from Mahadevapura and East Zone of the city, and sewage surveillance data has also corroborated this. However, in all these samples, the Omicron BA.2 variant is dominant, he explained.

The health department may soon increase Covid-19 testing numbers. Randeep D, Commissioner, Health and Family Welfare, told TNIE, "We are being vigilant and will increase testing soon. As of now, though Karnataka still has a Test Positivity Rate of below 1 per cent, Bengaluru on some days reached 1 per cent, but that has not been consistent too."

Stressing the need for an increase in testing samples, Dr Manjunath CN, nodal officer for testing and member of the Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) said, "This Covid-19 virus seems to have a great memory. In the last three waves, we have seen a rise in cases first in Delhi, then Maharashtra, Kerala and four to six weeks later, Karnataka. The same pattern is being seen now too. This will also be a rapid rise-rapid fall kind of wave. We have to increase testing by at least 10-15 per cent, and tests should be done on all admitted patients, irrespective of medical issue."

Meanwhile, in Delhi, INSACOG scientists admitted to have found the BA2.12.1 mutant, again a Omicron sublineage of BA.2, which is probably the reason for the current surge. Dr Angelique Coetzee, Chairperson, South African Medical Association, told TNIE, "We have also found the BA2.10 sub-lineage in South Africa, but there is nothing to worry about. The clinical picture is more or less the same as Omicron. There is no need to panic."

Mumbai-based sheep suppliers dupe city merchant of ₹1.73 crore

PRAVEEN KUMAR @ Bengaluru

A sheep merchant has knocked the doors of the police after the sheep suppliers from Mumbai cheated him to the tune of Rs 1.73 crore. The victim was then supplying sheep and goat to various meat stalls across the city, Mysuru and other parts of Karnataka by procuring them from the accused.

The victim was crediting money to the accounts of the accused either after selling the sheep or even in advance to place orders. The victim who has a sheep farm was selling the animals in bulk to meat stalls and was earning a decent profit on each sheep. The accused, who visited him, found out that it was a profitable business. Assuring him of providing sheep and goats for even lesser price, they have made him send money in advance and have gone incommunicado.

P Channigappa alias Ravi, 38, a resident of Kanakapura Road, has filed a complaint in this regard with the Harohalli police. The police have identified the accused Ajju Bhai, Sadhik Mohammed, Shajad Moosa Sheikh and Imran, all residents from Kalyan in Maharastra. The complaint was filed on Tuesday. The victim was also purchasing the sheep and goats also from Rajasthan, Gujarat and other parts of the country. The accused were known to the victim for the last three years as they were regularly supplying the sheep and goats.

Of the accused Bhai is alleged to have visited the victim and realised about his profitable business. They then started delaying in sending the animals for meat purpose. The victim has also furnished the details of the bank transactions between him and the accused. The police are trying to reach the accused to hear their version.

Speeding car hits dog, case filed

BENGALURU: Jnanabharati police have filed a case against a car owner who allegedly hit a stray dog intentionally, killing her on Nagadevanahalli Main Road on April 19. The incident was captured on CCTV. The police said that Ramachandra Bhatta, an animal activist, in his complaint said the residents noticed the car hitting the dog. Instead of taking the dog for treatment, the driver fled the scene. A case has been registered against the driver on the charges of mischief by killing or maiming animal. ENS

Goods vehicle driver found dead

BENGALURU: A 24-year-old youth was found dead under mysterious circumstances in Govindaraja Nagar police station limits, on Thursday morning. The victim Umesh was a resident of Magadi Road and a goods vehicle driver by profession. "As per the preliminary probe, Umesh had attended a wedding on Wednesday night and had informed his father he would come home soon. Prima facie, the death is due to a head injury," the Govidaraja Nagar police added. ENS

Start filling potholes immediately: HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Thursday asked the agency entrusted with the work of filling up potholes, as per the work order dated April 20, 2022, to start work immediately. The order was issued by BBMP for 182-km long major roads (Package-A) in the city.

Passing the order, a division bench of Chief Justice Ritu Raj Awasthi and Justice SR Krishna Kumar directed the BBMP Chief Commissioner to reconsider the rate fixed for repair of potholes by the Python machine, taking into consideration the schedule of rates fixed by the government for work undertaken by the Public Works Department.

"The decision of the Chief Commissioner, as well as report on progress of work, should be placed before the court on May 21, 2022, the next date of hearing. In the meantime, the agency made a request for payment of advance to start work, and the same should be considered by BBMP and appropriate action taken," the court said in its order.

Before this, V Srinidhi, BBMP counsel, submitted that pursuant to the court's order, the provisional work order was issued on April 20, 2022, along with a letter of acceptance for 182 km of major roads, and selected roads in the city.

However, counsel for the agency submitted that BBMP has provided the rate much below the scheduled rate prescribed for repair of potholes by machine, by the PWD (Rs 1,249 per hour) and hence the agency should be entitled to get the rate prescribed for the PWD for the pothole repair machine.

In support of this, the counsel placed before court the 'Government of Karnataka Common Schedule Rate Technical Volume-1' in which the prescribed rate for pothole repair machine is Rs 1,249 per hour. Srinidhi replied that the rate per hour is for emergency purpose, and not the scheduled rate.

KODIHALLI CHANDRASHEKAR DONS AAP CAP, PICKS UP BROOM

Raitha Sangha to remain farmers' party, but its members will contest as AAP candidates

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

FORTY-TWO years after inception, the Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha (KRSS) faction led by Kodihalli Chandrashekar embraced a political outfit, Aam Aadmi Party (AAP), in order to take the electoral plunge in the 2023 assembly polls. Chandrashekar, who had organised the Raitha Samavesha, joined AAP in the presence of Delhi Chief Minister and AAP national convener Arvind Kejriwal, at the National College Grounds on Thursday, creating a history of sorts.

It was significant as one of the founder-members of the original KRRS, H R Basavarajappa, also joined AAP and recalled the four-decade long movement which he claimed was still afloat. Former Karnataka Agriculture Price Commission chairman Prakash Kammaradi, a close associate of former chief minister Siddaramaiah, also joined the party.

Kodihalli, in party cap and wielding a broomstick, the party's symbol, gave a call to Raitha Sangha members to toil hard and send AAP MLAs to Vidhana Soudha.

"Whether Congress is an alternative for BJP, or JDS for Congress, we have found AAP as an alternative. We held deliberations for over one year and found Kejriwal as a role model," he said, and went on to liken the Delhi CM to Jayaprakash Narayan, and that he can root out corruption. He declared that AAP is the political mouthpiece of the party, and Raitha Sangha will keep its sanctity as an independent organisation to struggle with farmers' issues.

However, Raitha Sangha members are likely to contest on the AAP symbol in large numbers, with the Sangha and AAP having evolved a plan. "How long can we wait, tolerating the three major political parties which are the same — they make use of Raitha Sangha support and betray them ultimately. We need to become legislators to make pro-farmer policies and also economic ones," remarked Chandrashekar.

He termed former prime minister HD Deve Gowda a "fatherly figure" and sought his blessings for the new mission of Raitha Sangha. Taking a dig at the BJP government, he said Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai did not deserve to continue in his post after the issues of 40 per cent commission, malpractice and bribe in PSI selection came into the open. "Why have 17 of his cabinet colleagues brought a stay from court, so that video clippings are not telecast?" he questioned.

Kejri, Siddu release MDN book

The Raitha Samavesha also marked the release of 'Barukolu' (Whip), a book on Prof M D Nanjundaswamy, edited by writer Nataraj Huliyar, by Arvind Kejriwal.

Simultaneously, Opposition leader Siddaramaiah released the book at his residence, with Nanjundaswamy's daughter Chukki organising the event.

Hubballi riots: Maulvi Pathan held, claims he is innocent

AMIT S UPADHYE @ Hubballi

THE Hubballi police on Thursday arrested Wasim Pathan, a maulvi, who allegedly instigated a mob which had gathered outside the Old Hubballi Police Station on the night of April 16 to protest against a derogatory social media post.

Pathan, a religious cleric, was absconding for the last few days and he was picked up in Belagavi.

Pathan was wanted by the police after videos showing him atop a police vehicle from the riot night went viral. Incidentally, hours before the arrest, Pathan released a video claiming that he was innocent. Pathan said that he climbed the police vehicle after police requested him to do so and pacify the crowd. "I was asking them to go back home. But suddenly the atmosphere changed and turned violent. As I was painted as the main conspirator for the violence, I feared for my life and did not surrender to the police," he said in the video. Hubballi Police Commissioner Labhu Ram said that investigation has been expedited after the arrest of Pathan. He was subjected to questioning for more than three hours. Later he was taken to KIMS for a medical check-up after which he was produced before the magistrate.

"Pathan was picked up from Belagavi and the police are questioning him to know his role in the violence. So far, 134 people have been arrested. On Thursday, eight people were arrested. So far 12 cases have been booked," the officer said. Police sources told TNIE that AIMIM leader Mohammed Arif was arrested in connection with the violence. The police said Abdul Mallik Bepari, a rowdy-sheeter, has also been taken into custody.

There were allegations that AIMIM party members were behind the stone-pelting in Hubballi. Meanwhile, the police have made elaborate arrangements to organise examinations for the main accused who posted a derogatory post on the social media leading to protests in Hubballi. The court has permitted the student to write his exams under police security. The bail plea of the student is expected to be heard on Friday.

ENSURE LOUDSPEAKER RULES ARE ENFORCED: RAVI TO OFFICIALS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

BJP General Secretary CT Ravi on Thursday said that the State Government must ensure that the rules prohibiting the use of loudspeakers from 10 pm to 6 am without permission are strictly implemented.

Speaking to the media, Ravi said it is the responsibility of the officials to ensure that stipulated decibel levels are maintained and no one violates the rules that prohibit use of loudspeakers from 10 pm to 6 am without permission. The government must ensure that the officials enforce these rules, he added.

Right-wing organisations have urged the government to take action against those religious institutions that use loudspeakers by violating the rules and they had even stated that if authorities fail to act, they will use speakers at temples and mutts for playing bhajans, songs and prayers from 5 am onwards.

Ravi and BJP National General Secretary Arun Singh slammed the Opposition Congress for its minority appeasement politics and making baseless allegations against the BJP government.

Singh, who attended the party workers' meeting in Bengaluru Rural district, said the BJP government is taking up development programmes for the welfare of people from all religions, without any discrimination, while the Congress had resorted to appeasement politics when it was in power.

Singh said they have prepared a roadmap for further strengthening the party in Karnataka and they will be holding many conferences, including booth level workers conferences.

On allegations against former minister KS Eshwarappa, the BJP leader said Eshwarappa resigned on moral grounds and he will come out clean. Eshwarappa had resigned from the Bommai Cabinet after an First Information Report (FIR) was registered against him in civil-contractor Santosh Patil suicide case. Patil had accused Eshwarappa's associates of demanding commission to release grants.

I can give better schools, free healthcare: Kejriwal

"INSTEAD of punishing them, the Bharatiya Janata Party leadership is not only protected them but also rewarded the father with a ministerial berth. A leader accused in a minor girl's rape incident was taken out in a 'shobha yatra'," he said.

Kejriwal maintained that though he did not know how to do politics, he knew how to construct better schools, give free healthcare, power, water and free rides for women in government buses in Delhi. "It is possible because we are honest to the core (kattar imandari). Even Prime Minister Narendra Modi had to acknowledge it as raids by CBI, Delhi Police and IT department on myself, my cabinet ministers and MLAs proved futile," he remarked.

Impressed by the huge gathering, he gave a call to farmers of the country to join AAP to bring about a change in their lives, and also the country. "The BJP was egoistic so it did not repeal the anti-farmer laws until the farmers came on to the streets of the national capital," Kejriwal said, drawing a parallel to Ravana's ego in the epic Ramayana, when he did not heed the advice of his well-wishers and wife.

He listed out his government's achievements in Delhi, especially modern schools which attracted 4 lakh children from private schools, and termed it "magic". After former IPS officer Bhaskar Rao joined AAP a few weeks ago, Kodihalli Chandrashekar jumped on board and KRRS too has turned to the party, giving it a breakthrough in Karnataka.

WAR OF WORDS

'Siddu tried to jail me'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Mysuru

THE acrimony between arch rivals Opposition leader Siddaramaiah and former chief minister HD Kumaraswamy took an ugly turn with the later accusing Ahinda leader of conspiring to send him to jail. He alleged that Siddaramaiah installed the BJP government in the state and is responsible for the collapse of the JDS, Congress government. When both the parties claim of winning 150 seats, there is no scope for alliance, he said, and hit out at Siddaramaiah for demanding the arrest of Kumaraswamy instead of KS Eshwarappa.

He said that this shows the agenda of arresting him.

Refuting Congress charges that he did not take MLAs along, Kumaraswamy said that he wanted to know about the Arakavathy deal from Siddaramaiah.

On contractor Santosh Patil's alleged suicide, he said that there is a competition in Congress to extend financial benefit to the family of the deceased, and demanded Congress to come out with evidence holding Eshwarappa responsible for the suicide.

Referring to bulldozers razing structures in New Delhi, he said that they will furnish a list of illegal structures both in Bengaluru and Mysuru.

'CM should call meeting of religious leaders'

MYSURU: JDS leader HD Kumaraswamy on Thursday urged Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai to call a meeting of religious leaders of all communities at Vidhana Soudha here, and send out a clear message to the society, amid the recent communal flare-ups in Karnataka. He condemned some leaders and fringe elements setting deadlines on the Azaan issue and reiterated that he would speak over the issue in the interest of the people and harmony. The government should spell out whether it will go by the deadline of the organisation over the Azaan issue, he added. Speaking to media persons here on Thursday, Kumaraswamy said he is not aware of allegations that a few had planned to murder two policemen in Hubballi. "Who instigated them? Who permitted them to address the gathering by standing atop a police vehicle in Hubballi? Why did you not arrest him? Where has he gone?" he asked. He said the government failed to find a solution to communal problem and the CM is keen to please his RSS bosses rather than win the hearts of people.

CM defends CID probe into PSI recruitment scam

CM Bommai listens to the grievances of people in Kalaburagi on Thursday

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Kalaburagi

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday defended a probe by the CID into the PSI recruitment scam. "Both the State Government and CID are maintaining transparency in the ongoing probe," he added. Addressing the media in Kalaburagi where he is to attend the two-day divisional level BJP convention, Bommai said, "Soon after discrepancies were noticed in CET for PSI posts, the State Government ordered for a CID Probe. The probe began after registering an FIR against an educational institution belonging to a BJP member. If we were biased, how could the CID file FIR against that particular institution?" The president of the institution, some of the employees and candidates who appeared for the exams at that centre have already been arrested by the CID. On re-exams for PSI recruitment, Bommai said a decision will be taken soon after the CID submits its interim report.

Cong MLA's gunman, constable held

RAMKRISHNA BADSESHI
@ Kalaburagi

AT a time when the Congress has intensified its protest against the BJP State Government over various issues, a gunman of a sitting Congress MLA has been arrested in connection with the PSI recruitment scam in Kalaburagi district. Ayyanna Desai, the gunman of Afzalpur Congress MLA M Y Patil and another constable, Rudragowda, attached to City Armed Reserve Police, were arrested by the CID on Thursday.

Speaking to the media here, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, who confirmed the arrest of the two policemen, said, "We are taking action without any bias... without sparing anybody". CID sources said Desai, who appeared in the CET at Jnana Ganga English Medium School centre on October 3 in Kalaburagi, was helped by Rudragowda. Rudragowda was helping Ayyanna Desai by dictating answers on a mobile phone from outside and the latter was copying the same with the help of a Bluetooth device.

With this, the total number of those arrested by the CID in the scam so far stands at 10.

Meanwhile, BJP leader and secretary of Jnana Ganga English Medium School, Divya Hagaragi, one of the prime suspects in the case, applied for anticipatory bail at the Third JMFC Court in Kalaburagi on Wednesday. The co-accused, head master Kashinath, and employee Archana, have also applied for anticipatory bail even as they have been evading the police for over 10 days.

On the other hand, acting on the confession statement of first accused in the case, Veeresh, of paying Rs 39 lakh to Assistant Engineer of Irrigation Department of Kalaburagi, Manjunath Melakundi, regarding the test, the CID has served a notice to the latter. Manjunath had been asked to appear before the investigators to clarify on the confession of Veeresh. But Manjunath skipped and went absconding.

Following this, CID sleuths raided Manjunath's house at NGO Colony on Wednesday evening. They found hall tickets of many candidates who had appeared for the test.

It is alleged that Manjunath used to deal with the heads of the institutions conducting PSI CET for helping the candidates after the aspirants greased his palm.

Cong fields Hukkeri from North East Teachers' constituency

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @Belagavi

THE Congress has decided to field former MP and party veteran Prakash Hukkeri as its candidate for the upcoming Legislative Council elections from the North East Teachers' constituency. A six-time MLA and a former MP, Hukkeri will clash with sitting MLC Arun Shahpur of the BJP.

According to sources, AICC General Secretary Mukul Vasnik announced the candidature of Hukkeri in New Delhi. A seasoned politician from Chikkodi, Hukkeri is a popular politician in North Karnataka. He was a strong contender for Congress ticket in the recently-held MLC election from Belagavi local bodies constituency. The party, however, had fielded Chennaraj Hattiholi. Ever since he lost the last Lok Sabha election from Chikkodi, Hukkeri had been exerting pressure on the Congress high command for a chance to bounce back into state politics.

An MLA from the erstwhile Sadalaga Assembly seat, Hukkeri launched his son Ganesh Hukkeri into state politics in the 2014 Assembly bypoll. Ganesh had won riding on his father's popularity. Ganesh had won from Chikkodi assembly segment, which was carved out post-delimitation with the merger of Sadalaga into it.

Prakash Hukkeri was one of the powerful ministers in the cabinet of Siddaramaiah, who was CM from 2013-2018, but his party decided to field him from Chikkodi in the Lok Sabha elections. Under pressure from the high command, Hukkeri quit the Cabinet and his son contested from Chikkodi assembly seat which he had eventually quit.

Hukkeri was holding the portfolios of Sugar, Small Scale Industries and Muzrai in the Siddaramaiah's Cabinet when he was made to quit in 2013. Later, Hukkeri went on to win the Chikkodi Lok Sabha seat in 2014 but lost the last election from the same seat to BJP's Annasaheb Jolle in 2019.

Police question Sasikala in Kodanad case

217 people grilled so far; Investigation to find out who was in charge of the bungalow in absence of Jayalalithaa

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Chennai

A POLICE team on Thursday questioned former AIADMK leader VK Sasikala in connection with the heist-cum-murder incident at Kodanad estate, which belonged to former Chief Minister J Jayalalithaa.

According to sources, Sasikala was asked whether she had any knowledge of the incident, which took place on April 23, 2017. She was serving a prison term in Bengaluru at that time.

The police team, comprising Inspector General of Police (West) R Sudhakar, the Nilgiris Superintendent of Police Ashish Rawat, two deputy superintendents of police, and two inspectors, questioned Sasikala at her house in Habibullah Road in T Nagar. The interrogation was recorded on video. The inquiry started around 11 am and the team left the premises around 5.30 pm. Police sources said she will be questioned on Friday as well.

According to police sources, the team is trying to find out who was in charge of Kodanad bungalow in the absence of Jayalalithaa (who died in 2016) and Sasikala. The investigators also wanted to know the details of valuables and documents missing from the bungalow. This is the first time police have questioned Sasikala in the case.

In the incident, an armed gang killed a guard, entered the property, and decamped with valuables. Five days later, Kanagaraj, the first accused in the case, was killed in an accident on Salem-Chennai Highway in Attur. The same day, Sayan, another accused and a Kerala native, also met with an accident near Kerala's Palakkad. His wife and daughter were killed in the accident but Sayan escaped with injuries.

A month later, an estate employee who was in charge of the CCTV cameras and computers was found dead under mysterious circumstances. The police filed a charge sheet in September last year.

A few days ago, the State police informed the Madras High Court that it questioned about 217 people in the case and that further investigation was on.

Kerala cop kicks Cong workers, draws party ire

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@T'Puram

K-RAIL resumed laying of survey stones for the Silver-Line after nearly a month on Thursday triggering protests in the capital and Kannur. Protesters and police clashed at Kaniyapuram in Thiruvananthapuram, while residents blocked officials at Chala in Kannur, forcing authorities to halt the process.

Situation turned tense at Karichara near Kaniyapuram in Thiruvananthapuram when a civil police officer kicked two protesting Congress workers with his boot. The incident drew widespread criticism following which Rural SP Divya V Gopinath ordered Special Branch DYSP Stuart Keeler to probe the incident.

Local residents and Congress workers gathered at Karichara in the morning. When protesters attempted to uproot the stones, police intervened. In the ensuing melee, civil police officer Shabeer Ali kicked two Congress workers on their stomach and chest. K-Rail authorities soon left without laying more stones. The protesters alleged that the police attacked them without provocation.

Leader of Opposition V D Satheesan said, "Police should think thrice before kicking protesters with boots. There will be dire consequences if the authorities don't take action. This is my warning to the police." He said there was hardly any difference between the Delhi and Kerala Police.

Unable to decide about writing exam: Student

"MY mother was a tailor but had ensured that I got a good education. After my father died, the chairman of my school sponsored my high school education and I scored 84 per cent in Class 10 with ICSE syllabus. I had scored 96 per cent in first-year PU. So I was determined to be a topper and get a good name for my college. I approached the college and PU Board through child rights NGOs and an advocate to get special permission to take up practical exams, since I had missed them due to my exceptional situation. But I only got a response from the PU Board on April 1, and special permission for practical exams was denied. The last line of the letter from the PU Board joint director said I can take up practical and theory exams in the next academic year, after taking permission of the PU Board deputy director. I tried my best for permission for both practicals and theory this year, till Wednesday. Depressed, I have now reached Yadgir. I am unable to decide whether to just write the theory exam, and it is almost impossible for me to come and collect the hall ticket, take the principal's signature and reach the exam hall in time. I will take both practicals and theory next year and score well," he added.

PU Board director Ramachandran said, "Students who have missed practical exams can take the theory exam. Vijay's name is on the nominal roll and he could take theory exams from Friday. He is the only juvenile in the entire state who sought special permission to write second PU exam, and also to take practical exams. Such special permission is not given for practical exams," he said.

K'TAKA COAL USAGE FOR POWER IS LOWEST

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

WHILE many states are reeling under power crises due to coal shortage, Karnataka has been selling power to the grid, even after getting 15 rakes of coal a day.

While Karnataka is selling power, many domestic and industrial users are complaining of power cuts.

According to energy department records, from April 1-20, Karnataka has sold 82 MU of power, adding Rs 79 crore to the state exchequer which was sold at an average rate of Rs 9.63 per unit. Of this, from April 13- 20, 2022, 53 MU power was sold accruing Rs 60 crore.

"Karnataka comes last in the list of the coal-dependent states for power generation. We need coal to run and maintain the base load of power, 8,000- 9,000 MW on a daily basis, which comes down to 4,000-5,000 MW during monsoon, in all the three thermal power plants (Ballari, Raichur and Yeramarus). Since at present Karnataka does not have any storage unit, the excess has to be sold to the grid. If we do not sell the power, we will have to switch off the thermal units, as renewable energy (RE) sources cannot be shut down. Also, to restart thermal units requires double the coal and it will take 12-18 hours," a senior energy department official told The New Indian Express.

Maharashtra and Chattisgarh are the top coal-dependent states while the least are Karnataka, Tamil Nadu and Gujarat.

"Of the total installed capacity of 31,200 MW, 15,404 MW is RE. Karnataka is 34 per cent dependent on coal (10,343 MW)," the officials said.

Industries in Bengaluru and other parts of Karnataka, domestic consumers are complaining of power cuts.

FKCCI President IS Prasad said that there are no power cuts in industries as of now. But transmission line maintenance work is causing power cuts in some areas of the state.

Members of Kassia said: "While officially there are no power cuts announced, unscheduled power cuts continue to be a regular feature."

Additional Chief Secretary, Energy Department, G Kumar Naik said there is no shortage of power in the state, but the power cuts are due to technical transmission glitches by the distribution agencies.

'Structure resembles a temple'

MEANWHILE, president of Jumma Masjid, Mohammed Mamu, maintained that the structure in question was an old mosque which is being mistaken to be a temple. He said it was a nearly 900-year-old mosque and said there are land records to prove it.

Vishwa Hindu Parishad leader Sharan Pumpwell, who visited the spot, said the architecture of the structure resembled a temple and demanded an investigation into the same by the archaeological department. He also urged the gram panchayat to cancel the license given to the mosque for the renovation works.

However, former Mangaluru mayor K Ashraf said that in the olden days, mosques were built in a different style, much different from how today's mosques are built.

MANN NEEDS TO EMERGE FROM THE KEJRIWAL SHADOW

When the AAP's Haryana in-charge and Rajya Sabha member Sushil Gupta recently promised the impossible by alluding to water from the emotive Sutlej-Yamuna link (SYL) canal irrigating his state if his party is voted to power, he was playing a dangerous game of stoking passions. Water is a highly sensitive subject in Punjab, which is not ready to share even a drop with Haryana despite Supreme Court rulings. Punjab also has a history of violence and widespread unrest whenever SYL canal decision-making was on the table. By design or otherwise, Gupta has placed his party top leadership and the AAP-led Bhagwant Mann government in Punjab between a rock and a hard place. As it is, the month-long CM is still finding his feet, mentored as he is by AAP founder Arvind Kejriwal who himself wanted to be Punjab CM but settled for the next best option of remote control as he had to yield to the history of the state always having a Sikh as the CM. Unsurprisingly, Kejriwal conducting a meeting of a bunch of Punjab's bureaucrats a few weeks ago in Delhi stirred up a storm. Allegations that the Mann government is being run by proxy from Delhi are bound to hurt the CM.

As for Mann's ministerial team, it lacks both political and administrative skills as the state polls gave a massive mandate to loads of greenhorns in his party instead of the familiar duopoly of the Congress and SAD. They have to learn on the go. And the humongous welfare promises the AAP made in the run-up to the Punjab polls are not easy to keep since the state does not have adequate revenue and is sitting on a whopping ₹3 lakh crore debt pile. In FY22, an estimated 21% of its revenue went towards debt servicing alone. Yet, Mann announced 300 units of free power for each family, mirroring the scheme that is operational in Delhi.

For Mann to eventually succeed as a leader, he has to soon show he is his own man. As for the SYL minefield, stepping away from it would be the most prudent option for him and Kejriwal as it otherwise risks squandering away Punjab's goodwill the party earned at the hustings.

SHIFTING CHILDLINE TO MHA LACKS LOGIC

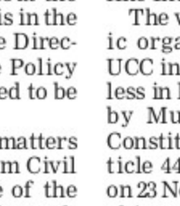
The proposed move to integrate the ChildLine (1098) with the Ministry of Home Affairs' 112 emergency helpline services under the Ministry of Women and Child Development's Mission Vatsalaya scheme has rightly drawn flak from activists and experts working in the realm of child rights. The WCD ministry announced the proposal last year and cited a need to protect sensitive data as the rationale. Recently, it released draft guidelines for the scheme for feedback, but they do not go into much detail about the integration

The ChildLine has existed for about a quarter of a century, the contact number is widely known and accessed by children in distress. The organisation shares annual data that reveal the nature of calls it receives and the support it provides. The service was particularly invaluable during the pandemic when a spike in child marriages was seen across the country. More importantly, the service connects children with professionals trained to deal with their needs. Not all the calls that arrive at the helpline require action from law enforcement; experts have said sometimes the child, in distress, just needs to talk to someone. These are supports that the ChildLine and its partners across the country are equipped to provide. The question arises as to why the WCD ministry, tasked with ensuring the well-being of children, would want to integrate this service with helplines run by the MHA, which are not run by professionals trained to deal with kids.

While the draft only says that a detailed SOP on the integrated service will be issued separately, activists fear that the helpline may end up being manned by police personnel. Multiple studies have shown that children are often frightened of interacting with the police; so making them the first point of contact for a child in distress might lead to kids choosing not to seek assistance. Not only are cops not trained to handle the needs of vulnerable children, police departments across the country are understaffed and personnel often overworked. Adding another—sensitive—task to their plate could only be a recipe for disaster. It is imperative that states understand this and provide feedback accordingly. The WCD ministry must drop the proposal for the benefit of children.

A look at the Constituent Assembly debates will show that while so much has happened since India gained freedom, the Muslim viewpoint on UCC remains unchanged

TIME FOR A FRESH START WITH UNIFORM CIVIL CODE



A SURYA PRAKASH

Former chairman of Prasar Bharati and Scholar, Democracy Studies

SOUMYADIP SINHA

With the BJP coming to power in several states, many leaders of this party at the state level have begun campaigning for a Uniform Civil Code (UCC) in the country. The latest to join this chorus is Pushkar Singh Dhami, who has begun his second innings as Chief Minister of Uttarakhand recently.

At the first meeting of his Cabinet, Dhami decided to set up an expert committee to examine the issue and come up with a draft code. He had made this commitment during the campaign for the state Assembly elections held recently. With this, Uttarakhand has set the ball rolling for states to test the waters by stepping into this legislative field.

Article 44 of the Constitution makes a reference to a UCC and says, "The State shall endeavour to secure for the citizens a uniform civil code throughout the territory of India." This is in the chapter dealing with the Directive Principles of State Policy and is therefore presumed to be advisory in nature.

However, many of the matters pertaining to the Uniform Civil Code figure in item five of the Concurrent List in the Seventh Schedule of the Constitution that demarcates the legislative powers of the Union government and the states. Both the Central government and the states can legislate on matters in this list.

Under the Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) Application Act, 1937, issues such as marriage, maintenance, dower, divorce and inheritance come within its purview. Many of these also find a place in item five of the Concurrent List. Also if it were to push through such a law, Uttarakhand will not be the first state to do so. In fact, currently Goa is the only state in the country that has a UCC since the days of Portuguese rule.

But the idea of a UCC has constantly met with resistance from the Muslim community. The All India Muslim Personal Law Board declared last November that it was opposed to the idea of a UCC and said "it was neither suitable nor useful" for a vast, multi-religious country like India.

The views expressed by Islamic organisations vis-a-vis the UCC in recent years are more or less in line with those expressed by Muslim members of the Constituent Assembly when Article 44 came up for discussion on 23 November 1948. All of them objected to this Article, even though it was only advisory in nature. A look at those debates will show that while so much has happened over the last 75 years since India gained independence, the Muslim viewpoint on this matter remains unchanged.

The objectors in the Constituent Assembly included Muhammad Ismail Sahib, Naziruddin Ahmad, Mahboob Ali Baig Sahib Bahadur, Pocker Sahib Bahadur and Hussain Imam.

Ismail Sahib contended that there was no need to regiment the civil law of the people. Naziruddin Ahmad also introduced an amendment on similar lines and said that the laws pertaining to marriage and inheritance were part of religious injunctions.

Mahboob Ali Baig Sahib Bahadur claimed that for 1,350 years, personal law had been practised by Muslims and recognised by all authorities.

The arguments of the Muslim members were countered by K M Munshi, Alladi Krishnaswami Ayyar and B R Ambedkar, who was the chairman of the Drafting Committee.

> Ambedkar said he was 'very much surprised' by the arguments put forth by the Muslim members as there was already a uniform and complete criminal code, a Transfer of Property Act, etc. He challenged the contention of Muslim members, who said that their law is immutable and uniform throughout India

Munshi disagreed with the arguments advanced against the Article and said many countries had common civil codes.

He said the personal laws of minorities were not recognised in any of the advanced Muslim countries. Citing Turkey and Egypt, he said no minority in these countries was permitted to have its own personal law. Further, when the Shariat Law was passed by the Central legislature, the Muslim members rammed it through and said it would apply to all members of the community even though the Khojas and Cutchi Memons did not want to submit to it. "Where was the rights of minorities then?"

Alladi Krishnaswami Ayyar said the leaders of India wanted the whole of the country to be welded and united together into a single nation. Are we helping this process or "is this country to be kept always as a series of competing communities? This is the question before us".

Ambedkar said he was "very much surprised" by the arguments put forth by the Muslim members because there was already a uniform and complete criminal code, a Transfer of Property Act, the Negotiable Instruments Act and other laws that means practically there was a civil code applicable to the whole of the country.

Further, Ambedkar challenged the contention of Muslim members, who said that their law is immutable and uniform throughout India and that it is followed by all those who practise the faith from ancient times. Ambedkar said that up to 1935, the North-West Frontier Province and other states followed the Hindu law in the matter of succession. In fact, in north Malabar, the Marumakkathayam, which was a matriarchal system, applied to all, including the Muslims.

Ambedkar concluded his arguments and said it would be alright to incorporate certain portions of the Hindu law in order to evolve a common civil code.

However, there were two Muslim members of the House—Naziruddin Ahmad and Hussain Imam—who felt that India could have a common civil code, "sometime later".

The question is whether 75 years is not a long time. As regards the rights of minorities, can one hope for ideas such as equality and fraternity to develop uniformly within the country, if one constantly keeps harping on differences as Alladi Krishnaswami Ayyar had warned?

WHEN ALI MAPPILA BECOMES ALI CHAMUNDI

CHANDRAN T V

Art critic & author. Teaches art history at the College of Fine Arts, Thiruvananthapuram

In sharp contrast to the general perception of religious harmony as conceived in the rites of theyyam, an event of excommunication from the region of theyyam in the wake of an inter-religious marriage was reported recently both in print and visual media. One report said, "... revolutionary background and strong presence of the CPM have always given the place [Karivellur, Kasaragod] an aura of progressiveness. But N Vinod Panickar, a poorakali-marathukali exponent of Karivellur, has been facing a sort of ostracism as he is prevented from performing at the temples in the village. The reason: his son has married a Muslim girl." (TNIE, Mar 16).

Religious rift and related antagonism was hardly felt in the normal life of this region in the past or present. On the contrary, the tradition of theyyam seems to maintain subtle expressions of communal unrest. Its symbolic expression runs through almost all other Muslim deities in theyyam, though they are few in number. One of its glaring examples was discussed earlier in these columns (Religious harmony: The Muslim in Theyyam Reassessed, Mar 19). Another important case in point is the transformation of Ali Mappila into Ali Chamundi.

Among other deities, Ali Chamundi is also part of the annual theyyam festival called kaliyattam in the Arikkady Bhagavathy Temple at Kumbala in Kasaragod, a place acclaimed for religious harmony. The legends that speak of Ali's deification narrate that he hailed from the Andaman and Nicobar islands. Ali Mappila (the Malayalam term for Muslim) settled in Arikkady village as a rice trader. As the legend goes, with his prowess both in martial arts (kalari) and black magic, he enjoyed free rein for catering to his own vicious interests, particularly lustful assault on women. The fact that he could not be killed as he wore an amulet with magical power to protect himself from premature death had left the village under ever-lasting danger. But the Goddess Chamundi swung into action. Disguised as an enticingly beautiful woman, Chamundi moved to a pond and began to take bath. The lustful Ali followed her to the pond and dashed down the water by accepting her invitation to have jalakreeda (water sport) with her. Obeying her, he removed the protective amulet from his body; the same moment she transformed herself back into the ferocious Chamundi to vanquish him. Before the final act, the Goddess made him repent for his atrocities. His repentance was rewarded by offering him a place for worshipping Chamundi, the chief deity of the Arikkady shrine, as her obedient devotee.

Various versions of this story are retold with slight differences in details. However, the main narrative thread remains more or less the same—the lustful Ali being vanquished by the Goddess. It may be presumed that this narrative is a mythicised version of a shocking event that probably took place at a certain point of time in local history. As a version goes, Ali raped a beautiful girl of a reputed household in Kumbala while she was taking a bath in the nearby pond; in the following moments, she killed Ali and herself.

Unlike the inscrutable myth of the Mappila-Karimchamundi theyyams discussed in my last column, here the narrative is clear—fight between the good and bad, and the former finally emerges triumphant. However, what makes it more interesting is the fact that the historical event was transformed into the mythological world; in ritual context, the mythological is again brought back to the historical present.

The individual tragedy was reappropriated and developed into a symbolic language of myth and ritual for reviving collective sentiment. As Emile Durkheim says elsewhere, "The traditions whose memory this mythology perpetuates are expressed in the way the society imagines the man and the world ... The rite, then, does and can only serve to support the vitality of these beliefs, to prevent them from fading from memory—that is, in short, to revive the most essential elements of the collective consciousness. By this means, the group periodically reanimates the feeling it has of itself and its unity; at the same time, the nature of individuals as social beings is reaffirmed ... One is more certain of one's faith when one sees its relation to the distant past..."

Ali Chamundi at Arikkady Bhagavathi Temple, Kasaragod | FOLKLAND KERALA

If we think in this direction about myth and its ritual context, the deification of Ali does not seem to symbolise religious harmony; rather it symbolises the Muslim as the inimical Other in order to reanimate the (Hindu) community's "feeling it has of itself and its unity". The personification of the spirit of Ali therefore may be seen not as a deity, but as an obedient servant of Chamundi the village worships. A sub-shrine devoted to Ali as a later addition to the Arikkady temple offers historical proof. Coupled with this, it may be seen that the bare-chested, black-faced (black magician) Ali with a fez cap (for religious identity) has a repulsive look. It denotes 'he looks exactly like the real.'

If the rituals pertaining to Ali and many other similar deities assume the form of worship, it is a complementary effect; they play around the idea that the Muslim transgressors were tamed and converted into (Hindu) deities, but their fundamental function is to be commemorative. Its latent text sometimes resurfaces as in the event cited in the beginning.

Will help students

The UGC's decision to introduce a parallel two degree course system is a welcome move. There may be difficulties in implementing this, but considering the benefits that students get, this is worth experimenting (UGC's two degree decision and social justice, Apr 20). This will enhance their skill set, making fresh graduates more suitable for employment. While selecting the second degree course, students may be counselled regarding job-oriented courses, mode of learning and the probable expenses. Admission to additional degree courses should be based on the reservation system with fee concession, subsidies and other support systems. For in-person two-degree courses, a lot of administrative flexibility along with reorientation for the teachers and management is necessary. Cost inequalities should not be an issue. Affordable, accessible, equitable and higher-quality education will ensure a better future for both the students and the nation.

Misuse of power

The bulldozer drama unleashed in Uttar Pradesh is slowly spreading to other states. In the name of removing illegal structures on encroached lands, the concerned civic bodies are tearing down shops, houses, etc. But the process adopted needs to be corrected. Unfortunately, in our system, the authorities have to take recourse to lengthy legal procedures even in cases where everyone knows about the illegality of the structures. This is where the unscrupulous elements in society take advantage, manipulate the system and delay punitive action. As alleged by the deputy chief minister of Delhi, in a large majority of the cases, the political leadership is responsible for such encroachments and structures. That means there is an urgent need to amend our existing laws governing such illegal practices. Moreover, the authorities should not misuse their powers as it appears they are targeting a particular section of society.

Govardhana Myneedu, Vijayawada

Govt high-handedness

After Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh and Gujarat, bulldozers, the latest instrument to maintain law and order in India, were in action in riot-hit Jahangirpuri in Delhi till the Supreme Court's fiat stopped the mayhem. Bulldozer politics doesn't augur well for a time-tested democracy like India. Bulldozers that raze the livelihood of alleged lawbreakers are indicative of totalitarianism that's slyly infiltrating India's polity. Such high-handedness only alienates those at the receiving end.

Barrier-free environment

All over India many doctors pursue private practice without installing any facilities for the physically challenged. Persons with disabilities need a barrier-free environment. Governments must ensure that even private clinics provide proper ramps.

Nation first in policies, Modi tells civil servants

Modi says country's unity comes first, dream should become resolve

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @New Delhi

AMID clear signs of communal polarization across the country with the unenviable role of the bureaucracy in enforcing law of the land, Narendra Modi on Thursday sought to advise the civil servants to "keep the nation first" and work for the country's unity.

"Nation-first should always reflect in our decisions. No matter how populist a decision may be, it must not harm the integrity of the country," said the Prime Minister, adding that there should be no compromise on this.

The PM's remark came in the backdrop of 'bulldozer politics' in several BJP-ruled states where houses and business outlets of several people have been razed on the suspicion of their involvement in criminal activities.

On Civil Services Day, the PM said every decision should be judged on its capacity to provide strength to the country's unity and integrity. He presented the Prime Minister's Awards for Public Administration Excellence. He presented 16 awards for five identified priority programmes as well as for innovations in public administration and service delivery, among others.

Defining the goal of making a vibrant India on 100 years of its independence, he said, "India at 100 can't be a routine. This 25-year period should be seen as a unit and we should have a vision for it."

Stressing the need for ensuring development through bringing behavioural changes in public and society, the PM said that a change in the life of the common people in the country must be ensured through easy and simple ways.

"We should support people to convert their 'sapana' (dream) into 'sankalp' (resolve) and into 'siddhi' (completion). We should have an attitude of abundance," he said.

Talking about himself, the PM said that he had never been a person of "political temperament" but someone who tried to understand the common people's concerns. "I am a person associated with public policies. I am associated with the life of the common man with a focus on 'jan-niti' (public policies)," he said.

"Whatever we do should be done in the global context. If we don't follow the activities at the global level, it will be very difficult to decide our priorities and focus areas," the PM said. "India has not been made of royal thrones but traditions of carrying on the strength of the common man."

'India needs vision for the next 25 years'

Defining the goal of making a vibrant India on 100 years of its independence, Modi said, "India at 100 can't be a routine. This 25-year period should be seen as a unit and we should have a vision for it."

India will reach peak with Sikh Gurus' blessings: PM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

CALLING for a joint effort for the progress of the country, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday said development is the duty of everyone, for which all must come together and make attempts.

"During Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, this is the pledge of the country. We need to take pride in our identity. We need to take pride in local (indigenous) products and build a self-reliant India. We need to build an India full of abilities so that the entire world should look up to us. Development of the country is our joint responsibility. It requires effort from everyone. I am confident that with the blessings of (Sikh) Gurus, India will reach the peak of its pride," said Modi. He was speaking at the 400th Prakash Purab (birth anniversary) of Sikh Guru Teg Bahadur at Red Fort ground.

India has never posed a threat to any country or society and the country thinks for the welfare of the entire world even amid global conflicts, Modi added. "When we talk about Atma Nirbhar Bharat (self-reliant India), we aim at the development of the entire world," the PM said.

While lauding the progressive thoughts, endurance, and dedication of the Sikh community, Modi spoke about the struggle and sacrifices made by Guru Teg Bahadur. He said the Gurudwara Sis Ganj Sahib near Red Fort stands as a symbol of the immortal sacrifice of Guru Tegh Bahadur.

"Gurudwara Sisganj reminds us how great was the sacrifice of Guru Tegh Bahadurji to protect our great culture. At that time, there was a storm of religious fanaticism in the country. Guru Teg Bahadurji was a great hope for India to protect its identity. In front of Aurangzeb's tyrannical thinking, Guru Tegh Bahadurji stood like a rock," Modi said.

Six points of Shiv Tandav in PK formula

YET, the Congress continues to be a "formidable political force" with 90 MPs (Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha) and 800 MLAs in spite of the fact that it has "faced a steep fall from erstwhile hegemony". He said the party remained second in 209 parliamentary constituencies in 2019 and came second in 1,072 assembly seats in the state elections between 2016-2021.

Kishor used the symbol of Nataraj (the dancing Shiva) and the six aspects of Shiva Tandav namely Shrishti (creation), Stithi (protection), Anugrah (liberation), Sanhar (destruction), Tirobhav (concealment) and Upsmar (connect) to lay the roadmap for the party's "reincarnation". He said the party needs to "preserve its soul" and "create a new body".

These six foundational resolves comprise creating a new Congress which would become a choice of the masses, protecting the party's legacy values and core principles, liberation from inertia, mediocrity and status quo, destroying sense of entitlement, lack of accountability and sycophancy, concealing the immutable baggage of nepotism and corruption.

He said the party needs to take five strategic decisions to kick-start the process of reincarnation. These are: Fix the leadership issue, solve the alliance conundrum, reclaim the party's founding tenets, create an army of grassroots leaders and foot soldiers, and an ecosystem of supportive media and digital propagation.

Kishor said Congress leadership does not appear aligned in terms of goals, strategy, method, approach, tactics and the way forward, leading to a lack of cohesion, at times confusion and stalemate. He did not mince words as his presentation contained stark figures reflecting the party's "perpetual decline since 1985". It showed the steady fall in vote share and the number of seats won in Parliament and state assemblies.

He said the party performed particularly poorly when it was in direct contest with BJP. He said in 2019, Congress lost 92% of Lok Sabha seats where it was in direct contest with BJP, compared to 90% similar seats in 2014. He highlighted three possible reasons for the party's electoral decline: natural disadvantage of being legacy incumbent; four periods of organised mass dissent; and failure to capitalise on legacy and achievements.

Describing the Legacy Incumbency Disadvantage, he said 75 years after Independence, there are still 55 crore people who survive on less than ₹100 per day of income, 20 crore sleep hungry, 17 lakh are homeless and 16 crore have no access to clean drinking water. India also ranks poorly on key global indices: 102nd on Global Hunger Index, 145th on healthcare access and 120th on human development index.

Going into the history of Congress' decline, he said four mass movements – JP Movement, Bofors, Mandal, Ram Mandir and the rise of Modi and India Against Corruption — dented its prospects and caused a fall in voteshare.

He pointed out the party's failure to capitalise on its legacy and the achievements of its governments. He said the first prime minister belonging to the party — Jawaharlal Nehru — was the architect of modern India who gave us parliamentary democracy; Indira created Bangladesh, abolished privy purse and nationalised banks; Rajiv Gandhi brought the telecom revolution and ushered in the panchayatiraj system; Narasimha Rao brought economic liberalisation and mid-day meal, Manmohan Singh's term was the most prosperous decade in India and he brought in rights-based legislations such as RTI, RTE, etc.

He highlighted India's growth story under Congress from 1952 to 2014. He said the per capita income has grown from ₹1,492 to ₹96,563 in this period, and life expectancy increased from 32 to 68.02 years between 1952 and 2014.

Rajasthan Congress to have brainstorming session in Udaipur

On a day Sachin Pilot met Sonia Gandhi and sought to know his future role in Rajasthan, Congress sources said the party would hold a three-day brainstorming session (Chintan Shivir) beginning May 13 in Udaipur for Assembly polls due in some states later this year as well as Lok Sabha elections in 2024. All party MPs, MLAs, office-bearers and allied organizations will discuss and prepare a strategy for Mission 2024, party sources said. In 2013, Rahul Gandhi became the party's vice president during the Jaipur Chintan Shivir. On similar lines, the party expects major decisions during the May Chintan Shivir. Besides Congress, Working Committee members and veterans, Congress chief Sonia Gandhi, Rahul and Priyanka Gandhi will attend the camp. Apart from reviewing the party's recent defeats in the polls in five states, the strategy for upcoming elections, including in Gujarat, will be discussed. Party's organizational changes will also be taken up. Party sources said discussions would centre on taking Congress out of the transition state and identify changes to be made in the management of the party given the emerging political situation in the country. "The aim will be to combat the BJP's special strategy for election campaigns," said a source.

NEW OMICRON MUTANT MIGHT BE CAUSING SURGE

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

NEW Omicron sub-lineages could be driving the current surge of Covid-19 cases in Delhi and surrounding areas, official sources said on Thursday.

Genomic sequencing has shown the presence of eight subtypes of Omicron, including BA.2.12 and BA.2.12.1, a subvariant called BA.2, which is spreading in the US. Official sources said these new Covid-19 subtypes were detected in over 60 samples sequenced from Delhi in the first fortnight of April.

It could have caused a sharp rise in Covid-19 cases in Delhi and the National Capital Region. The Delhi government had sent all samples to the Institute of Liver and Biliary Sciences (ILBS) to determine if a new variant was causing the spread of infection.

Eight variants of Omicron emerged, including BA.2.12 and BA.2.12.1, the two variants closely related to the BA.2, a version of Omicron which has propelled surges across Europe and the US.

Sources said they are ascertaining which sub-types are the dominant ones, causing the spike in Covid cases in the national capital. Genome sequencing of 578 samples from January to March had shown that 97 per cent of cases were Omicron while only two per cent were the Delta strain responsible for many deaths in 2021.

A more transmissible subvariant, BA.2, accounts for around three-quarters of US cases. BA.2 has produced its sublineage, BA.2.12.1, which is more contagious. But in most cases in Delhi, patients showed mild to moderate symptoms. The World Health Organisation (WHO) is yet to declare it as a variant of concern. It has been said that the BA.2 sub-variant is more transmissible than the original BA.1 strain.

According to the Union health ministry, 2,380 new cases were reported on Thursday, while active cases went up to 13,433.

No demolition for two more weeks, says SC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday extended its order directing maintenance of status quo on the razing of shops in the violence-hit Jahangirpuri area in New Delhi by two weeks.

The court also said that it would take a serious view of the demolition that was carried out even after its order was communicated to the municipal corporation mayor Raja Iqbal Singh. A bench of Justices L Nageswara Rao and B R Gavai issued notice to the Centre and others on the plea filed by the Jamiat Ulama-i-Hind claiming that buildings of Muslim riots accused were razed.

Senior advocate Dushyant Dave, appearing for Jamiat Ulama-i-Hind, said this matter raises far-reaching questions of constitutional and national importance. "What happened there is a matter of inquiry by an appropriate judicial process but what you do is make large scale arrests from people of only one community and start bulldozing," Dave said.

Solicitor General Tushar Mehta clarified that the encroachment removal process in Jahangirpuri had begun in January. He said during a demolition drive held in Khargone in Madhya Pradesh last year, 88 affected parties were Hindus and 26 were Muslims.

After hearing the parties, the Supreme Court \ordered, "We want affidavits from the petitioner on the notices, if served, and counter-affidavits, and till then, status quo order will continue."

CBI raids 14 locations in J&K power project probe

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) on Thursday conducted simultaneous raids at 14 locations in Jammu & Kashmir, Bihar, Delhi, Mumbai, Noida, Trivandrum and other places.

The raids were in connection with irregularities in awarding contracts of the Kiru Hydro Electric Power Project (in J&K) worth ₹2,200 crore to private companies.

CBI had initiated action following a complaint from the then J&K L-G Satyapal Malik. It had in 2019 lodged cases against the then MDs and directors of the companies, including the Chenab Valley Power Projects (P) Ltd. A CBI spokesperson said two cases had been lodged back then.

Keep asymmetric warfare in mind, says Rajnath

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

DEFENCE Minister Rajnath Singh on Thursday cautioned the armed forces against unconventional and asymmetric warfare, saying hybrid warfare will be a part of future conflicts.

He also spoke on prolonged standoff along the Line of Actual Control in eastern Ladakh, stressing that disengagement and de-escalation was the way forward.

On the Ukraine-Russia conflict, Rajnath said information, communication, trade and finance have all become an inseparable part of future conflicts. "This necessitates the armed forces to keep all these facets in mind while formulating strategies," he said.

The Defence Minister was addressing the five-day Army Commanders' Conference (ACC) that began in Delhi on April 18. The ACC is a biannual event held in April and October every year. The conference is an institutional platform for conceptual level deliberations, culminating in making important policy decisions for the Indian Army.

On the situation along the northern borders, Rajnath expressed confidence that while troops stood firm, the ongoing talks for a peaceful resolution will continue. The event took up all aspects of security scenarios, the situation along the borders, in the hinterland and challenges for the present security apparatus.

The synergised operations in the Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir are contributing to increased stability in the region and the same should continue —Rajnath Singh, defence minister

Narrow-minded politics, MEA says on PoK visit of US Congresswoman

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

INDIA on Thursday condemned the visit of US Congresswoman Ilhan Omar to Pakistan-occupied-Kashmir (PoK) and said it reflected 'narrow-minded' politics.

Omar, who is on a four-day visit to Pakistan, had also visited former prime minister Imran Khan at his residence.

"We have noted that she has visited a part of the Indian Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir that is currently illegally occupied by Pakistan. Let me just say that if a politician wishes to practise narrow-minded politics, it is her business," said Ministry of External Affairs spokesperson Arindam Bagchi. "But violating our territorial integrity and sovereignty makes this condemnable," Bagchi added.

The MEA also cleared the air on reports that suggested that a Japanese aircraft carrying humanitarian aid for Ukraine was denied permission to land in India. "Japan has received permission to overfly or land in Mumbai where the UNHCR has a depot for providing products under humanitarian aid. They are also permitted to take a commercial flight from Mumbai," MEA said.

He was asked to comment on Omar's visit to PoK. She is the first American lawmaker to visit Pakistan after the ouster of Imran Khan as prime minister of the country. To another query on recent terror attacks in Afghanistan, Bagchi said India has been looking at the developments in that country.

TRADE TALK

Cheers! Scotch may become more affordable

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

BRITISH Prime Minister Boris Johnson may have begun his brisk India trip from the dry state of Gujarat, but whisky is likely to figure in the trade talks between India and UK.

India is the largest whisky market in the world and makers of the acclaimed Scotch variety have a two per cent market share here. The value of Scotch sales in India had risen from below £60m in 2011 to more than £150m in 2019.

The Scotch makers are looking at increasing their market share to six per cent and this would be possible only if the 150 per cent tariff levied on them is removed to make it affordable.

"Launching UK-India trade talks offers a golden opportunity to reach an ambitious tariff reduction in an early harvest deal that could grow Scotch whisky exports to India by £1 billion over five years," said Mark Kent, the Chief Executive of the Scotch Whisky Association, the trade body that represents the industry.

"It would also be good for our industry and the Indian government's tax revenues — a win-win situation for all," Kent said, adding that India is their priority market. The state revenues in India could increase by £3.4 billion annually through an increase in sales, claim British whisky manufacturers.

Interestingly, when Johnson was the foreign secretary (May, 2017), he had landed in trouble for mentioning whisky exports to India during a visit to a Gurudwara in Bristol. He said there was a possibility of increasing exports of Scotch whisky to India after Brexit, with the signing of a free trade agreement.

A lady took offence to his mention of alcohol in the premises of the Gurudwara, for which Johnson apologised.

Mevani sent to 3-day custody of Assam cops

Independent Gujarat MLA arrested on Wednesday midnight and brought to Assam over tweet against PM Modi

Vadgam MLA Jignesh Mevani being arrested by Assam Police | TWITTER

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Guwahati/Ahmedabad

GUJARAT MLA Jignesh Mevani was sent to three-day police custody by a court in Assam's Kokrajhar on Thursday after he was arrested by a team of Assam Police from Gujarat's Palanpur in connection with a case registered under the IT Act.

The court directed that the MLA can't be taken anywhere outside Kokrajhar during the period of police custody. The Congress had sent a team of lawyers to the western Assam town to secure bail for him.

Mevani, a leading Scheduled Caste activist and independent legislator, was arrested by Kokrajhar Police from Palanpur in Gujarat on Wednesday midnight and brought to Assam on Thursday after a case was registered against him for his alleged controversial tweet against PM Modi.

Arup Kumar Dey, a BJP executive member in Assam's autonomous Bodoland Territorial Council, had lodged an FIR on April 19 against Mevani in connection with the tweet.

Following his arrest, the Vadgam MLA told reporters in Gujarat that he was not given a copy of the FIR although he was told the arrest pertained to his tweet. "I had appealed for peace. I said in a tweet that peace should be maintained given the atmosphere in the country where efforts are being made to break communal unity," he said. "I am surprised that an FIR has been lodged against me for a call on the maintenance of peace. This shows the real picture of the government but I am not afraid," he further said.

Mevani's arrest attracted flak from Congress and other opposition parties. "Modi*ji*, you can try to crush dissent by abusing the state machinery. But you can never imprison the truth," Congress leader Rahul Gandhi tweeted.

Party leader Randeep Singh Surjewala slammed the BJP for the arrest. "The arrest of our friend-colleague Jignesh Mevani for a tweet asking the PM to appeal for communal amity and brotherhood in Gujarat reflects the deep-rooted prejudice and fear among those sitting in the citadel of power in Delhi today," he said.

Assam's activist-turned-politician Akhil Gogoi also criticised the state's BJP government on Mevani's arrest.

Meanwhile, Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma expressed ignorance on the arrest of Mevani, stating that the police had not briefed him about it.

Tweet had potential to disturb peace, says FIR

In the FIR, Dey alleged "Mevani tweeted that 'the PM worships and considers Godse as God' and said that the PM on his visit to Gujarat on April 20 should make an appeal to the public for peace and harmony in areas in Gujarat where communal violence had taken place." He alleged the circulation of the tweet had caused widespread criticism and it had the propensity to disturb public tranquillity

BARAMULLA ENCOUNTER

Longest-surviving LeT militant killed

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THE longest-surviving operative of Lashkar-e-Toiba was among two militants killed in an encounter with security forces in north Kashmir's Baramulla district on Thursday. Four army jawans and a policeman were also injured in the gunfight.

Inspector General of Police (IGP) Kashmir Vijay Kumar identified one of the slain militants as top LeT commander Yousuf Kantroo, who was the longest-surviving LeT militant. Kantroo had joined militancy in 2000, he said.

According to police, Kantroo had joined as an overground worker of Hizb in 2000 and was arrested in 2005. Upon his release in 2008, he again joined militant ranks in 2017 and switched from Hizb to Lashkar. He was among the top 10 most-wanted militants in J&K.

The IGP said the slain militant commander was involved in the killings of several security force personnel and civilians. "He was involved in the recent killing of J&K police's Special Police Officer (SPO) and his brother in Budgam. He was involved in killing of BDC chairman Bhupinder Singh in September 2020 in Khag area of Budgam in central Kashmir," Kumar said.

Police said Kantroo was also involved in recruiting youth into militant ranks.

The IGP termed the killing of LeT commander as a "big success" for security forces and appealed to parents of militants to advise their wards to shun the path of violence and to join mainstream.

A police official said a joint combing and search operation was launched by police, CRPF and army personnel at Malwah area of Baramulla.

He said after sealing all possible escape routes, security personnel asked the militants to lay down weapons and surrender. "However, the militants turned down the offer and fired on the troops. The fire was returned by the troops, triggering an encounter," the official.

Four army jawans, including an officer, and a policeman were injured in the gunfight.

BJP, AAP CATCH POLL FEVER IN HIMACHAL; CONG STILL ASLEEP

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

IT is season of roadshows in Himachal Pradesh where Assembly elections are due later this year. While the ruling BJP is eying yet another term in power, the Aam Aadmi Party is trying to replace the opposition Congress as the alternative political force in the hill state.

With poll fervour already in the air, the saffron party is planning a show of strength on April 22, which will be followed by the AAP's roadshow on April 23. Notably, the Congress is missing from action.

BJP national president JP Nadda is scheduled to hold the roadshow from Kangra to Nagrota Bagwan followed by a rally at Gandhi Ground in Nagrota Bagwan in Kangra on April 22. Later in the day, he is likely to meet senior party leader and former chief minister Shanta Kumar. The BJP chief may also visit Brajeshwari Mata Mandir in Kangra. This would be the BJP chief's second visit to his home state in recent months.

A day after Nadda's rally, AAP national convener and Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal is scheduled to hold a roadshow and address a rally in Shahpur constituency of Kangra district. The district is politically strategic as it has maximum number of Assembly seats. Of the total 68 constituencies in Himachal Pradesh, 15 are in Kangra. In the last Assembly election, 11 of these were won by the BJP, which had formed government after winning a total 44 seats. Congress had won three seats in the district.

Kejriwal's rally comes in the aftermath of AAP's state president and general secretary joining the saffron camp.

AAP leader Rakesh Chaudhary said Kejriwal's rally in Kangra would be an "eye-opener" for the ruling BJP. Stating that AAP is already making an impact in the state, Chaudhary claimed the BJP government announcing 125 units of free power and free water to people in the rural areas is a proof for this.

Sources claimed some congress leaders may join the AAP at the rally.

Himachal BJP president Suresh Kashyap, however, claimed that AAP would not have any impact in the state.

AAP bets big on Guwahati civic poll

PRASANTHA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

WITH the Congress battling a depleting popularity, the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) is hoping to make inroads in Assam by faring well in Friday's elections to the Guwahati Municipal Corporation (GMC).

The GMC has 60 wards and the AAP is contesting 39 of them. It is trying to grow in the state at the expense of the Congress.

AAP's Assam state coordinator and national council member Bhaben Chowdhury exuded confidence the party would fare well. "We feel we will perform well. The (ruling) BJP also said that we will be in the second position," Chowdhury said.

He claimed people were supporting the AAP wholeheartedly. To buttress his claim, he said its workers were offered tea by a number of families during campaigning. "Some people also visited our party office to ask why we have not fielded candidates in their wards. Some others asked why we did not campaign in their areas," Chowdhury said.

He said "a lot of city denizens turned up spontaneously" on Wednesday when party's Delhi MLA Atishi had taken part in a road show. Atishi had lashed out at Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma for allegedly failing to provide basic amenities to people. Chowdhury said the AAP's "growing popularity" could be gauged also from the fact that 159 aspirants had applied for its tickets.

The AAP had opened its account in Assam's civic bodies by winning two wards in Tinsukia and Lakhimpur recently.

"We have been working for a while to build the party in Assam. After a lot of people joined us, we thought we should contest the GMC elections," Chowdhury said.

Bid to serve warrant to Sahara Subroto Roy fails

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

A Madhya Pradesh Police team which went to Uttar Pradesh capital Lucknow on Thursday in search of Sahara Group head Subroto Roy and others, including his wife Swapna Roy, for executing a non-bailable warrant (NBW) in 14 cases of cheating, breach of trust and criminal conspiracy, will have to return empty-handed.

According to additional SP Kamal Maurya, a team led by Datia Kotwali in-charge Devendra Sharma conducted searches at the Sahara India Group's premises in the Sahara Estate and the Sahara India Tower in Lucknow, but couldn't find any of the eight accused, including the Roy couple, in the cases.

Subsequently, the MP Police pasted the summons at both properties, asking the accused to be present personally with desired documents at the Datia Kotwali police station of MP's Datia district on May 5.

The Sahara Group head, his wife and six other directors of the group are accused in 14 cases of alleged chit fund fraud. More than 2,000 investors of Datia district had reportedly lost money in the fraud.

These cases were registered at the Datia Kotwali and Badoni police stations of Datia district in 2020, 2021 and 2022 and a local court in Datia issued NBW against the accused, after the notices issued by police asking them to cooperate in investigations met with no response.

According to Datia police sources, the alleged cheating and fraud of the 2000-plus investors is worth over ₹10 crore.

HC bins PIL against 'bulldozing', MP govt claims vindication

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

THE Madhya Pradesh High Court has dismissed a PIL filed by a Jabalpur-based advocate against the ongoing demolition drive of the Shivraj Singh Chouhan government.

While dismissing the petition filed by local advocate Amitabha Gupta, a division bench of the MP High Court said that "we are of the considered view that it may not be appropriate to entertain this petition as a public interest litigation. Even if the case of the petitioner is to be accepted that certain houses of certain persons have been demolished, necessarily those persons have a legal right to defend themselves in a manner known to the law".

"We do not see any nexus with the petitioner and the persons whose properties have been demolished. Therefore, it is for those persons to appropriately move the court for necessary order as they deem fit. We do not find any reason to entertain this petition on behalf of the present petitioner. Accordingly, the petition is dismissed," the HC said in the order passed on Wednesday.

Reacting to the HC's dismissal of the petition, state's home minister Narottam Mishra said the court has put its affirmative seal on the action being initiated against the illegal properties and encroachments of land sharks and rioters. "The action initiated by the government is in accordance with law and not targeted at any group."

The BJP government in the state is facing flak from opposition Congress, Muslim outfits and rights bodies over recent bulldozing of "illegal properties and encroachments" in the violence-hit Khargone and Sendhwa towns.

Shah to attend mega event for tribals in MP

Bhopal: The ruling BJP's continued focus on tribal-dominated seats of Madhya Pradesh will see Union home minister Amit Shah gracing a tribal-centric event in Bhopal on Friday. Shah would attend a grand event to credit bonus money into the accounts of tendu leaves collectors from across the state, at the MP capital's Jamboree Maidan.

5,000-page ED chargesheet against Malik in money laundering case

Mumbai: The Enforcement Directorate (ED) on Thursday filed a chargesheet spread over 5,000 pages against NCP leader and Maharashtra minister Nawab Malik at the special PMLA court in Mumbai in a money laundering case. Malik was arrested on February 23 by the ED in connection with the case registered against fugitive gangster Dawood Ibrahim and his aides for running a terror network in the country. According to the agency, during an investigation it came to know about a 2.75-acre plot of land in Kurla, also known as the Goawala compound, which was allegedly bought by Malik from Dawood Ibrahim's sister Haseena Parkar and the 1993 serial-blast accused Sardar Shahwali Khan. ED officials said the money paid by Malik was allegedly used for terror-funding. The deal happened between 2003 and 2005. ENS

Maha rift over IPS transfers

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mumbai

THE Maha Vikas Aghadi government in Maharashtra has yet again sailed into choppy waters after alliance partners NCP and Shiv Sena came face to face over the promotion and transfer of senior IPS officers in the state.

The face-off between the two partners became so intense that a transfer list of IPS officers had to be cancelled within 12 hours.

The state home department, headed by NCP minister Dilip Walse Patil, released the transfer list but senior Shiv Sena leader and urban development minister Eknath Shinde reportedly expressed displeasure over some of the postings.

Shiv Sena also alleged the party was not consulted while reshuffling the IPS officers in the state.

However, Patil claimed the list was not released but "leaked" to media.

Vij more vocal against AAP's affairs in Punjab

Haryana's Minister for Home Affairs and Health Anil Vij now makes sure he reacts to whatever the AAP government does in Punjab. The senior most BJP leader manages to slide in his reactions and comments to developments in the neighbouring state whenever asked to remark on his government's daily affairs. Vij's recent manoeuvre with quick speech reaction comes even sooner than the Punjab unit of BJP. Vij had been known for his outspokenness and had been known to have seen eye-to-eye with Chief Minister Manohar Lal Khattar on some issues owing to differences. Incidentally, Vij has constantly maintained that opinions differ, but there's no bad air between the two.

Mann and ministers' no-media approach

The fresh approach adopted by the newly elected AAP government in Punjab to not take to media briefings and put out videos of announcements on social networking sites has provided fodder for debates. Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann has been following this route for all broadcasts from the government — be it the decision to allot free power or the setting up of the anti corruption helpline. Following this, the public relations department issues a press release. At times, even the public relations department is left without a clue about a function connected with the State Transmission Corporation where the CM issued appointment letters.

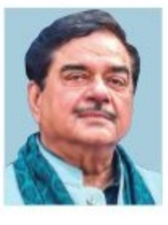
Malwa looks up to its star representatives

The power in Punjab lies in Malwa region of the state be it for the ruling party or the opposition. The newly elected Punjab Congress president Amrinder Singh Raja Warring and Shiromani Akali Dal president Sukhbir Singh Badal have one thing in common — both of them, who are now in the opposition and heading their respective political parties in the state, belong to Muktsar district of Punjab — Sukhbir hails from Badal village and Warring from Muktsar town. Chief Minister Bhagwant Singh Mann and senior most Finance Minister Harpal Singh Cheema belong to Sangrur district. Thus, the residents of this region have high hopes in their elected representatives.

Spend time in constituency, don't follow other stars: TMC tells Shatru

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

AFTER wresting Asansol Lok Sabha seat for the first time, the Trinamool Congress has asked its winning candidate Shatrughan Sinha to not follow the footsteps of other star legislators who hardly spend time in their constituencies. The actor-turned-politician has also been asked to be present in party workers' meet in all seven Assembly seats in Asansol constituency.



"This is the first time we have won the Asansol Lok Sabha seat. Wining it was a challenge to us as our arch rival BJP had been winning here since 2011. Now, we will have to retain the seat," said a senior TMC leader.

The TMC secured victory in Asansol with a margin of 3,00,533 votes. The by-poll was necessitated after BJP MP and actor-turned-politician Babul Supriyo defected to the TMC and resigned the post. TMC fielded Supriyo in Ballygunge Assembly constituency and he won the seat in the by-election.

"We won the Assembly and Lok Sabha seats riding on the popularity of star candidates. From our previous experience, star MPs, irrespective of their political alignment, are hardly seen in their constituencies. We don't want to make it a practice in our party. This is why we have organised workers' meetings and the MP has been asked to be present there," said the TMC leader.

TMC's victory in Asansol LS seat is significant as the constituency has non-Bengali voters, forming 40% of total electorate, who used be known as the BJP's vote bank.

"We have caused a sharp dent in the BJP's non-Bengali vote bank in Asansol. It has sent a message to a particular set of electorate which the saffron camp considered as their loyal followers. In Asansol, we will have to make the non-Bengali voters feel that we are with them," said another TMC leader.

From our previous experience, star MPs, irrespective of their political alignment, are hardly seen in constituencies. This is why we have organised workers' meetings and the MP (of Asansol) has been asked to be present there

RUSSIA CLAIMS MARIUPOL 'LIBERATED' AS US RUSHES NEW AID

Biden says 'questionable' if Russia controls the eastern city; Ukriane officials say thousands of civilians have been killed in fighting; 2,000 still in steel plant

ZAPORIZHZHIA

RUSSIAN President Vladimir Putin on Thursday claimed the "liberation" of the flattened city of Mariupol after nearly two months of fighting, demanding that its trapped Ukrainian defenders be sealed up in their underground last stand. The fate of the besieged port has become totemic as Russia battles to complete a land bridge covering territories of Ukraine already under its control, including Crimea, which would deprive Ukraine of its industrial heartland and most of its coastline.

US President Joe Biden, however, said Putin was doomed to failure in Ukraine, as he announced $800 million in extra US military aid including howitzers and tactical drones. "Our unity at home with our allies and partners, and our unity with the Ukrainian people, is sending an unmistakable message to Putin -- he will never succeed in dominating and occupying all of Ukraine," he said.

Ukraine appealed for an immediate humanitarian corridor to allow civilians and wounded fighters to be evacuated from Mariupol's sprawling Azovstal steel plant.

"They have almost no food, water, essential medicine," Ukraine's foreign ministry said. A flow of Western military aid has helped force Russia to deflect its offensive to eastern Ukraine and accentuated the devastating pressure on places like Mariupol on the shores of the Sea of Azov.

"Mariupol has been liberated," Russian Defence Minister Sergei Shoigu told Putin during a televised meeting. "The remaining nationalist formations took refuge in the industrial zone of the Azovstal plant." Shoigu said around 2,000 Ukrainian soldiers remained inside the site, where the last pocket of resistance has been sheltering in a network of underground tunnels.

Thousands of civilians are believed to have died in the city, and up to 2,000 others are also sheltering in the plant without access to drinking water or food, according to Ukrainian authorities.

Three school buses filled with Mariupol evacuees including women and children arrived in Zaporizhzhia after crossing through territory held by Russian forces, AFP journalists saw. AFP

US Treasury announces $500 mn economic aid

WASHINGTON

THE United States will provide Ukraine with a new $500 million infusion of aid to help the government in Kyiv continue paying salaries, pensions and providing services, a Treasury official said on Thursday.

The aid, which the official said is necessary to prevent the humanitarian situation in the country from growing more severe as Russia presses on with its invasion, will be announced by Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen during her meeting Wednesday with Ukrainian Prime Minister Denys Shmyhal and Finance Minister Sergiy Marchenko.

The money follows another $500 billion package of support for Ukraine's economy announced last month, and the official said Washington aims to get the aid to Kyiv as quickly as possible. Shmyhal this week said his government needs $5 billion a month just to continue operations amid the devastation of the nation's economy.

Western countries including the United States have stepped up aid to Ukraine in recent days as fighting rages in the country's east and south, and the IMF and World Bank have rampd up support as well.

Germany agrees to supply heavy weapons to Ukraine

BERLIN

GERMANY has reached an agreement with eastern European partners to supply Ukraine with a new batch of heavy weapons "in the next few days", Defence Minister Christine Lambrecht said on Thursday. "It's about tanks, armoured vehicles, or other options individual countries are able to give," Lambrecht told the NTV broadcaster. Germany will then replenish these stocks, she said, without giving further details.

The deliveries must happen quickly because "military experts agree that the next two weeks will be decisive in Ukraine's fight against Russia", she said. The tanks will include T-72 models from Slovenia, a government source told AFP, confirming German media reports. These will be replenished with Fuchs armoured vehicles and Marder infantry fighting vehicles, the source said. Lambrecht also said Germany would train Ukrainian soldiers to use German-made Panzerhaubitze 2000 self-propelled howitzers, reportedly due to be sent by Holland. AFP

Sri Lanka deploys military to bolster security

COLOMBO

SRI Lanka called out the military on Thursday to bolster security ahead of a funeral for the first person killed during weeks of running anti-government protests in the island nation.

President Gotabaya Rajapaksa ordered the three-day deployment to maintain order in the central town of Rambukkana, where police dispersed a demonstration with live rounds and tear gas on Tuesday.

A 42-year-old man was shot dead in Tuesday's melee and nearly 30 others were wounded.

"To ensure there are no incidents during and after the burial, President Gotabaya Rajapaksa invoked public security provisions," Sri Lanka's information department said in a statement. The military "will assist the police in maintaining public order" until Saturday, it added. Police violently broke up the Rambukkana protest after a crowd blocked a railway line and highway connecting the capital Colombo with the central city of Kandy to protest oil shortages and high prices.

A curfew imposed in Rambukkana was lifted on Thursday, but heavily armed police were seen patrolling the streets. A judicial inquiry into the shooting is under way.

Sri Lanka is suffering its most painful economic downturn since 1948, with months of lengthy blackouts and acute shortages of food, fuel and other essentials causing widespread misery.

Protesters have demanded Rajapaksa step down over the government's mismanagement of the crisis, and a large crowd has been camped outside his office in Colombo since April 9 to call for his resignation. AFP

IS-claimed blasts rock Afghan cities, 16 killed

KABUL

AT LEAST 16 people were killed in two Afghan cities on Thursday by bomb blasts that were claimed by the Islamic State group (IS). Since Taliban fighters seized control of Afghanistan last year after ousting the US-backed government, the number of bombings has fallen but the jihadist and Sunni IS has continued with attacks — often against Shiite targets. Earlier this week, at least six people were killed in twin blasts that hit a boys' school in a Shi'ite neighbourhood of Kabul.

On Thursday, 12 worshippers were killed in a blast at a Shi'ite mosque in the northern city of Mazar-i-Sharif, said Ahmad Zia Zindani, spokesman for the provincial public health department in Balkh. He added that 58 people were wounded, including 32 in serious condition. Grisly images posted to social media showed victims of the attack being carried to hospital from Seh Dokan mosque.

"Blood and fear are everywhere," said Zindani, adding "people were screaming" while seeking news of their relatives at the hospital. "Many residents were also coming to donate blood," he said. The blast occurred as worshippers were offering midday prayers during the Muslim holy month of Ramadan. AFP

BATTERY SWAPPING POLICY

Niti Aayog draft proposes GST cut on EV batteries

Policy was first announced by Sitharaman in this year's Budget

ARSHAD KHAN @NewDelhi

GST COUNCIL may consider reducing the differential across the tax rates for lithium-ion batteries and electric vehicle supply equipment (EVSE), which are at 18% and 5%, respectively, according to draft battery swapping policy released by government think-tank Niti Aayog on Thursday.

The draft paper mentions technical and operational requirements that battery swapping ecosystems would need to fulfil, to enable effective, efficient, reliable, safe, and customer-friendly implementation of battery-swapping infrastructure. The policy paper says that aby individual or entity is free to set up a battery swapping station at any location, provided that the specified technical, safety and performance standards are adhered to.

The policy was first announced by finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman in this year's Union Budget. The draft is up for consultation, and Niti Aayog has invited comments on it until June 5.

The overall vision, according to the draft paper, is to catalyse the large-scale adoption of EVs by improving efficient use of resources (public funds, land, and raw materials for advanced cell batteries) for the delivery of customer centric services.

The paper says other incentives to boost battery swapping and prioritise metropolitan cities with a population above 40 lakh for setting up a network. The Niti Aayog in its draft policy said all major cities such as state capitals, UT headquarters and cities with population above 5 lakh will be covered under the second phase, given the importance of the two-wheeler and three-wheeler vehicle segments in growing cities. It added that to support adoption of battery as a service (BaaS) models and EVs with swappable batteries, this policy seeks to level the playing field across business models involving sale of EVs with fixed or swappable batteries. The size of the incentive could be determined based on the kWh rating.

HEAVY PENALTY IF EV MAKERS FOUND AT FAULT: GADKARI

New Delhi: Coming heavily of EV makers, transport minister Nitin Gadkari on Thursday said if any firm is found negligent in their processes, a penalty will be imposed and recall of all defective vehicles will be ordered. In the last one month, over half a dozen fire incidents in EVs have been reported across the country, claiming lives in two cases. The firms involved here are Ola Electric, Okinawa, Pure EV and Jitendra EV. "Several mishaps involving electric two-wheelers have come to light in last two months. It is most unfortunate that some people have lost their lives and several have been injured in these incidents... We have formed an expert panel to probe into these incidents," the Union Minister said in a string of tweets. ENS

NBFCs can't issue credit cards without nod: RBI

RAM SAHGAL @ Mumbai

NBFCs cannot undertake the business of credit cards or their issuance without prior approval of the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), the regulator said on Thursday. The notification contains significant steps to protect and for the interests of customers.

Any company, including a non deposit taking one, will require a certificate of registration, apart from specific permission to enter into this business, the pre-requisite for which is a minimum net owned fund of ₹100 crore and subject to such terms and conditions as the RBI may specify in this regard from time to time.

"Without obtaining prior approval from the Reserve Bank, NBFCs shall not issue debit cards, credit cards, charge cards, or similar products virtually or physically," the regulator said in its notification.

The direction also spelt out directions to issuers of credit cards in the interest of customers. Particularly, the issuance of unsolicited cards or upgrade and activation of existing cards without explicit consent of the recipient has been strictly prohibited. In case of such occurrence, without consent, for which the customer is billed, the card issuer has to reverse the charges forthwith and also pay a penalty without "demur" to the recipient at twice the value of the charges reversed.

"In addition, the person in whose name the card is issued can also approach the RBI Ombudsman who would determine the amount of compensation payable by the card-issuer to the recipient of the unsolicited card as per the provisions of the Ombudsman Scheme, i.e., for loss of complainant's time, expenses incurred, harassment and mental anguish suffered by him/her."

The RBI also said unsolicited loans or other credit facilities should not be offered to the cardholders without seeking consent. In case an unsolicited credit facility is extended without the written and/or explicit consent of the cardholder and the latter objects to the same, the cardissuer has to not only withdraw the facility, but will also be liable to pay a penalty considered appropriate by the ombudsman, if approached.

NESTLE INDIA SEES MARGINAL DIP IN PROFIT

SAMIKSHA GOEL @NewDelhi

NESTLE India's net profit has fallen by 1.25% year-on-year (YoY) to ₹594.71 crore in the March quarter compared with ₹602.25 crore in the same quarter last year.

This is even as the company reported a 10.24% rise in revenue from operations YOY to ₹3,980.70 crore from ₹3,610.82 crore in the year-ago quarter.

Operating profits declined 0.6% on-year to ₹924.4 crore on rising raw material prices. Suresh Narayanan, Chairman and Managing Director in a statement said, "As highlighted in previous quarters, cost of key raw and packaging materials are witnessing 10-year highs, and costs continued to surge this quarter which has impacted profit from operations."

"Continued inflation is likely to be a key factor in the short to medium term. We are confident of facing this turbulence with strategies of scale, efficiencies, mix and pricing all of which we will deploy judiciously," said Narayanan.

The robust performance in e-commerce continued as the channel grew by 71% and now contributes 6.3% of domestic sales. Narayanan said, "We will continue to leverage e-commerce further through meaningful shopper insights, data analytics, speed, sharp communication and customization."

Domestic Brokerage and research firm Anand Rathi said Nestle's results are in line with expectations.

The company's most popular brand Maggi noodles saw robust volumes and confectionery brands such as KitKat and Nestlé Munch also registered double-digit growth. Amnish Aggarwal - Director - Research at Prabhudas Lilladher says, near term margin pressures are expected to sustain given inflation in Coffee, Palm oil, Milk and SMP.

Indian sellers can sell goods via Walmart platform in US

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ NewDelhi

GLOBAL retail giant Walmart on Thursday said Indian manufacturers and sellers can now sell their products to more than 120 million US consumers through its marketplace.

The initiative is part of the world's largest retailer's efforts to expand its sourcing from India to $10 billion a year by 2027. Along with Flipkart and cross-border commerce firm Payoneer, Walmart laid out a road map for local sellers with export ambitions at the recent Walmart Global Seller Summit in New Delhi. The Summit was attended by 650 Indian sellers.

Michelle Mi, Walmart vice-president - emerging markets and business development - global Sourcing, said, "Now is the ideal time for sellers from India to get started as exporters on Walmart Marketplace. It's already one of the top online marketplaces in the US, and we're investing heavily to help new sellers bring great products and services to the platform."

"As one of the first batch of Indian sellers on the Marketplace, those who join us now will have a great opportunity to find success in the US as part of a curated community of trusted sellers," he added.

FRL-RIL deal fate down to the wire as voting ends

RAM SAHGAL @Mumbai

FUTURE GROUP has completed the meetings with its lenders for their approval of the ₹25,700 crore sale of its retail assets to Reliance Retail amid buzz that the lenders might not vote in requisite numbers for the merger scheme to go through without knowing Reliance's intention on the deal , said a source .

"The lenders are wary as they need RIL's confirmation of the deal going through," he said.

"They won't vote for it only at the instance of Future Group." Reliance has already taken charge of 835 stores of FRL since Feb 25 after the latter failed to make rental payments to the lessors. These stores account for 55-60% of FRL's revenues , while the dues to RIL , according to the source, total less than ₹5,000 crore.

"With a chunk of the stores with RIL, despite bankers like SBI and Bank Of India coming down on FRL for handing over charge without prior intimation to them, the lenders are not sure whether the deal will be consummated," the source said .

FRL and RIL spokespersons could not be contacted for comment. For the deal to be approved, 75% of the shareholders and lenders of 21 Future group firms have to vote for it.

A shortfall of the required majority in even one company by either shareholders or lenders means the deal falls apart. FRL is legally battling Amazon which is opposed to the deal on grounds that it's investment in a promoter group company in 2019 gives it the right of first refusal on any sale of its assets by Future group.

Also , Bank of India has initiated insolvency proceedings against FRL after the latter defaulted in paying dues worth over ₹8,800 crore by December 2021 end and March 2022 end under a one time restructuring scheme.

TVS commits £100mn in Norton Motorcycles

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Mumbai

CHENNAI-BASED TVS Motor has committed an additional investment of £100 million in Norton Motorcycles, Britain's iconic sporting motorcycle brand, which it had acquired in April 2020.

"Some of these investments have already been made, leading to the creation of a world-class facility and the imminent launch of a re-engineered V4 SV and 961 Commando," said Sudarshan Venu, Joint MD, TVS Motor. He added that the investment will be toward electrification, cutting-edge technology, world-class vehicle manufacturing, sustainability & the future of mobility. Venu said the investment is expected to create 250-300 direct jobs over the next 3 years and another 500-800 indirect jobs across the supply chain. "The investments will result in an exciting range of products for the global market. A brand-new facility has already been set up at Solar Park, Solihull, UK, which houses Norton's state-of-the-art manufacturing capability and the company's new global design and R&D hub," added Sudarshan.

Honda 2Wheelers plans multiple EVs for India

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

INDIA'S second-largest two-wheeler maker Honda Motorcycle & Scooter India (HMSI) on Thursday said it will introduce a new low-end motorcycle in the 100 cc segment, as entry-level category continues to have a significant share in total two-wheelers sales in India.

The automaker also said it has planned multiple EV (electric vehicle) model here in the coming years while leveraging support from Honda's other subsidiaries. Currently, Honda is in its feasibility-study stage for readying its EV model line-up and developing the overall eco-system in India. Honda will be the last big player to launch an EV in India as Bajaj Auto and TVS have been selling their e-scooter since past few years and Hero Motocorp is expected to come out with its first electric product in the next few months. While the current EV space is dominated by new-age players such as Ola, Ather, Okinawa and others, recent cases of fire explosion in e-scooters sold by Ola, Okinawa, Pure EV and Jitendra EV, has raised safety concerns and capabilities of these players.

HCL Q4 profit zooms 226% to ₹3,593 crore

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Bengaluru

IT firm HCL Technologies on Thursday, beating estimates, reported a 226% Y-o-Y jump in consolidated net profit at ₹3,593 crore for the March quarter.

The company had posted ₹1,102 crore net profit in the same quarter last year.

"Net income of Q4 FY21 and full year FY21 excludes the impact of onetime milestone bonus paid to employees. The stellar growth in net income is after excluding the impact of one timers like the milestone bonus of $ 78.8 million and DTL on goodwill of $165.1 million, last year," HCL said.

Its revenue from operations stood at ₹22,597 crore, a 15% increase, compared to ₹19,641 crore in the year-ago quarter. Total revenue for full fiscal year FY22 rose 14% to ₹85,651 crore compared to ₹75,379 crore in FY21. The IT firm's EBIT margin was at 18.9% in FY22.

For the full year FY22, TCV (total contract value) of new deal wins at $ 8,308 million, registering 14% Y-o-Y growth. Its services revenue crossed the $ 10 billion milestone and registered a growth of 14.9% Y-o-Y for FY22.

"Our core beliefs of innovation and collaboration, driven by a strong faith in humanitarian values, have stood us well in these fast-changing times," said Roshni Nadar Malhotra, Chairperson, HCL Technologies.

The company also added 39,900 employees during FY22, up by 23.6% Y-o-Y, and its net additions during the fourth quarter was at 11,100, up 5.6% sequentially. HCL projected revenue to grow between 12% and 14% in constant currency in FY 2023, and EBIT margin expected to be between 18% and 20%.

LTTS sees healthy deal pipeline across segments

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

L&T Technology (LTTS), a subsidiary of Larsen & Toubro, sees a healthy deal pipeline and demand environment across segments. It has won a multi-year $100 million electric air mobility deal from Jaunt Air Mobility (Jaunt).

The pure-play engineering services company also bagged four other deals with total contract value (TCV) of over $10 million during the quarter ended March 31, 2022. The firm also bets big on metaverse, as it created a separate vertical for Meta. In an interaction with TNIE, Amit Chadha, CEO and MD of L&T Technology Services said the company's pipeline is stronger and deal closures in the fourth quarter were higher than previous years. The company reported a 35% increase in its consolidated net profit at Rs 262 crore for the quarter ended March 31, 2022, compared to Rs 194 crore in the same quarter last year. Its revenue for the fourth quarter stood at ₹1,756 crore, a 22% increase compared to ₹1,440 crore in the same quarter last fiscal. "We are guiding right now an organic growth of 13.5-15.5% in FY23. With better quality of growth, and improvement in operating metrics, we were able to improve EBIT margins to 18.3% in FY22, up 380 bps," Chadha said, adding there has been a three-fold increase in patents filed by the company's engineers.

Chadha also confirmed that they will hit a billion-dollar revenue run rate by Q2 or Q3 of FY23. Talking about metaverse, he said, "We have established a metaverse vertical within the company, and it is going to be headquartered in Chennai and we will be running it through there."

IFSC issues framework for investment funds

MONIKA YADAV @NewDelhi

WITH the growing need to facilitate investors at large to invest in private markets, the International Financial Services Authority (IFSC) has proposed to facilitate retail close-ended schemes to invest in unlisted securities, subject to conditions. The IFSC on Thursday notified a comprehensive regulatory framework for Investment Funds in the official gazette on April 19, 2022.

A fund management entity (FME) will be registered with IFSCA and manage different types of schemes if it meets the eligibility criteria, as per the regulations. FME have to be permitted to create special purpose vehicles under the main scheme to enable undertaking co-investment or leverage along with the fund, subject to certain conditions.

"Globally, there is an increasing need for having a formal structure for managing and preserving the wealth of the High Networth Individuals (HNIs) and Ultra HNIs and their families. A framework has been provided in the regulations," the release said.

Eating out to get dearer as restaurants, cafes opt for price hikes

SAMIKSHA GOEOL @ NewDelhi

EATING out at your favourite restaurant or cafe is set to get costlier as inflation-hit restaurants and cafes are implementing price hikes.

A number of restaurants that TNIE talked to have either hiked prices in the range of 5-15%, or are contemplating hikes to offset cost pressures.

The founder of Biryani Blues Raymond Andrews said the total food and packaging cost is up by 10% and they will increase the prices to manage a 50% hit to the business. Biryani Blues will go for a 3.5% price hike and 1.5% discount reduction by the end of the month.

"It's happening across brands as we speak, but this may be temporary as much of this inflation is speculative and rest on account of fuel prices going up. We see things should come back to normal in a couple of months," Andrews said.

Rashmi Daga, founder of FreshMenu also said food inflation across staples, dairy and poultry impacts the company's menu. "Hence, we have taken a 7-12% price hike across product categories in April."

Jubilant FoodWorks has taken a price increase of nearly 5% in April 2022, according to a recent report by ICICI Securities. The franchisees of Yum! Brands have also taken up to 10% price hike with lower increase in Pizza Hut, it noted.

Farman Beig, co-founder & CEO of Wat-a-Burger, says, they might revisit the price bracket as it is not just impacting one ingredient but the entire supply chain. He says while there is no immediate timeline to enforce any increase, it will not be more than 10-15%. Profit margins are leaner for the industry that is still recovering from the impact of Covid-19. In addition to it, as raw material prices are climbing up, fuel prices are hitting record highs, and supply chain is disrupted, the industry has started passing on the cost to customers. Gaurav Kanwar, founder, Harajuku Tokyo cafe says, "We're taking a severe hit on our margins as of now hoping it to be a temporary phase." They are likely to increase prices by around 7-10% if the situation doesn't stabilise.

Ten Hag to take charge at Man United next season

Erik ten Hag will leave Ajax to become Manchester United manager next season, the English giants confirmed. The 52-year-old, who has signed a three-year contract, faces a huge task to revive the Red Devils fortunes after a fifth consecutive trophyless season. The Dutchman becomes the fifth permanent manager at Old Trafford since Alex Ferguson's retirement in 2013.

DHONI TURNS BACK CLOCK

Veteran takes Chennai home in a last-ball thriller against Mumbai with a 13-ball 28

MS Dhoni helped Chennai Super Kings score 17 runs in the last over of Mumbai's Jaydev Unadkat on Thursday | SPORTZPICS

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @Chennai

RIGHT from Makhaya Ntini, Albie Morkel, Doug Bollinger, Josh Hazlewood to Dwayne Bravo, Chennai Super Kings have had world class bowlers who could win matches on any given day with their bowling. However the auction dynamics meant that CSK had to be content with Chris Jordan and Dwaine Pretorius who have not yet proved their mettle in the tournament.

With the injury of Deepak Chahar and loss of Shardul Thakur to Delhi adding to that, CSK badly missed the services of the duo and thus lost five matches out of the six they had played so far. But on Thursday, against Mumbai Indians, CSK chose to drop Moeen Ali and Jordan, and brought in Santner and gave Pretorius one more game.

In a do or die game where a positive result would help them to stay afloat in the tournament, CSK put Mumbai Indians in to bat. Mumbai, who have not won a match so far and have lost six in a row, as expected, began nervously. Mukesh Choudhary (3/19) capitalised on this, bowling with a lot of vigour and fire. And, on the very second ball of the innings, he accounted for an out of form Rohit Sharma, who lobbed a fullish delivery that swung in a bit to Mitchell Santner at mid-on.

Three balls later, Mukesh castled Ishan Kishan. Suddenly, the stadium came alive as CSK fans began to roar. This is the kind of start that they have been looking for. Mukesh also accounted for the rising star Dewald Brevis as Mumbai were reeling at 23 for three. In the middle overs too, CSK bowlers did well to not allow any major partnership to develop. Tilak, who enjoyed a reprieve early on, went on to make an unbeaten 51 and along with Jaydev Unadkat (19 n.o), he added 35 runs for the eighth wicket which helped Mumbai post 155 for 7 in 20 overs. Chennai's bowling was once again found wanting, with Bravo conceding 17 runs in the 20th over.

Chasing 156 for a win, MS Dhoni took CSK across the line in a last-ball finish. Brief scores: MI 155/7 in 20 ovs (Varma 51 n.o, Choudhary 3/19) vs CSK 156/7 in 20 ovs (Rayudu 40, Dhoni 28, Sams 4/30).

INDRANEEL DAS @ Chennai

THREE major meets — World Championships, Commonwealth and Asian Games — would keep athletes glued to the track and field for most of the second half of the year. The preparation has begun at home and as they shift gears from training to pre-competition mode, a bunch of top athletes (quarter-milers and women sprinters) have moved base to Antalya, Turkey. Interestingly, MR Poovamma (400m) and Dutee Chand (national record-holder over 100m) are not part of the team.

With the calendar getting intense with the Worlds in July followed by the Commonwealth Games a few weeks later, the athletes would be looking to get into competition mode by June-July. Inter-state senior athletics in Chennai would be the gauging competition for all. According to the Athletics Federation of India president Adille Sumariwalla, inter-state would be mandatory for all athletes and those who qualify for the Worlds and the Commonwealth Games would be sent to Europe for training and competition.

According to AFI chief, athletes would also compete in as many quality local events as possible. "They would not just train but compete in local competitions," said Sumariwalla. "They need competitions and if we see there is not enough then we will rethink." Calling the athletes back and making them compete in national meets is not ruled out. With the next two Indian Grands Prix slated for May 17 and 21 in Madurai, it needs to be seen if top quarter-milers and sprinters manage to participate (the Antalya trip will run till June 6). However, AFI said it is mandatory for all athletes. "We will want all our athletes to compete at the inter-state athletics in Chennai in June," he said.

The middle and long-distance team that was supposed to leave for the US is still completing their visa formalities. Avinash Sable (steeplechaser) and coach Scott Simons are already in the US while others have been waiting for visas. According to AFI chief, it's due to the unavailability of appointment dates. "We are working on it and would be sorted out soon," he said.

Olympic champion Neeraj Chopra, who is already training in Antalya, would continue training there. Chopra will enter competition mode at the Pavo Nurmi Games in Turku, Finland. According to earlier plans envisaged by his team including his coach German Klaus Bartonietz, Doha Diamond League was the starter before moving to Europe. But because he needed some more training, they have skipped Doha. He is expected to compete at the Stockholm Diamond League in July before moving to the US for the Worlds. Chopra could be one of those athletes who may skip the inter-state. The AFI said it all depends on his coach and if he thinks he needs to train or compete elsewhere, AFI would consider. The race-walking camp that was going on in Bengaluru has shifted to Patiala. There have been murmurs that there had been issues between coaching staff and athletes in Bengaluru, but AFI clarified that the camp was shifted to have a better monitoring mechanism. "Since the chief national coach is in Patiala, we thought it would be prudent for the athletes to train there and monitor closely. Race-walking is one of the identified sports for the future." Interestingly, M Sreeshankar has been included in the national camp in NCOE, Bengaluru. He had skipped the national camp in October.

Women's boxing team departs for Istanbul

CHENNAI: The women's boxing team, who'll be taking part in the World Championships, left for Istanbul Thursday. As reported by this daily, the team have left early in order to take part in a training camp ahead of the marquee meet, scheduled to begin on May 8 (bouts begin from May 9). Tokyo medallist Lovlina Borgohain (70kg) is one of the big names in the 12-member team.

Jehan targets third straight podium

MUMBAI: India Formula 2 racer Jehan Daruvala heads to historic Imola this weekend eyeing his third podium finish from as many rounds at what will be a home event for his Italian team Prema. "I'm really excited to race in Imola this weekend. The track oozes history and tradition and, at the same time, is a real drivers' circuit," Jehan said. The Red Bull-backed racer opened this season with a second-place finish in Bahrain.

City back on top as Arsenal rekindle CL dreams

MANCHESTER: Manchester City regained top spot in the Premier League from Liverpool with a 3-0 win over Brighton, while Arsenal revived their push for the top four by beating Chelsea 4-2 at Stamford Bridge. City were not so sparkling, but held their nerve to edge back one point ahead in the title race thanks to second-half goals from Riyad Mahrez, Phil Foden and Bernardo Silva.

Jemimah continues to reign supreme

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

AFTER being left out of the World Cup squad, Jemimah Rodrigues is making a statement of sorts in the ongoing senior women's T20 league as she smashed 93 runs from 54 balls against Punjab in a Group E match in Ranchi on Thursday.

Although the result didn't go Mumbai's way as fifties from Harmanpreet Kaur and Taniya Bhatia took Punjab home, Rodrigues hit the bowlers across the park in a knock that included eleven fours and three sixes. She has scored 158 runs in three innings so far, averaging 52.67 while striking at 164.58. Skipper Shafali Verma continued her good form with the bat, hitting yet another quickfire half-century (29-ball 51) for Haryana against Saurashtra in the other Group E match.

Meanwhile, Tamil Nadu started well against Bihar in a Group B clash with Nethra L going berserk early on, but crumbled once she got out. They went from 60/1 to 81/5 before Niranjana Nagarajan and MS Shailaja took them to 117/5. With the ball, K Ramyashri's miserly spell, where she conceded just one run in four overs, helped them beat Bihar by 28 runs. In Group C, Karnataka suffered their third successive defeat and are all but out of the tournament as they lost by 7 wickets to Himachal Pradesh.

Sprinter-turned-wrestler Sushma clinches bronze

FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

SUSHMA Shokeen was a sprinter winning medals for Delhi when she sustained a hamstring injury around six years ago. Coincidentally, wrestling coach Virender Dahiya saw the then 15-year-old Sushma's struggles and advised her to switch to wrestling given her physique. The move turned out right as Sushma, making her international debut, bagged 55kg bronze at the Asian Championships in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia on Thursday.

"I was Delhi champion in 100m and 200m when I got injured. It was a difficult period and then Virender sir advised me to take up wrestling. My family agreed with my decision although I was apprehensive as I was joining a new sport at the age of 15," Sushma said.

She lost the opening bout 10-0 to Japanese wrestler Umi Imai but beat Altyn Shagayeva 5-0 and Sarbinaz Jienbaeva 12-0 to make a strong comeback. She, however, lost the last round bout to Otgonjargal Ganbaatar of Mongolia 15-5 to finish third. Sushma now aims to represent the country at the Commonwealth Games and Asiad.

Sarita sets record

During the last edition, Sarita Mor (59kg) became the first woman wrestler from the country to defend her Asian Championships title. She was defending champion going into the 2022 edition but lost the first two bouts to move out of gold contention. She, however, ensured that she did not return empty-handed as the 27-year-old wrestler won the next two bouts to finish with bronze. The medal meant she became the only Indian woman wrestler to win four medals (2 gold, 1 silver and 1 bronze) in the event.

"The local Mongolian wrestler, Shoovdor Baatarjav, was not cautioned for passivity and I lost the first bout narrowly 1-2. I couldn't move in the next bout against Sara Natami of Japan losing 10-0. I am not satisfied with my performance but the medal is a saving grace. Now I will compete in 57kg during trials to make a cut for the CWG and Asiad," said Sarita. She defeated Uzbek and Kazakh wrestlers in the next two bouts to finish on the podium.
